KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below. From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880. DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Perseverance Will Tell!

Stoughton, Mass., March 10th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as sprains, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unequalled success, to our knowledge, for beast as well as man. Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. J. B. Bass drums should be sold by the pound. "Go to the ant, thou sluggard" is all very well, but if the sluggard will go to a plente the ant will come to him. You cannot cultivate a man's acquaintance by continually harrowing his feelings. A St. Louis cat has died of sun-stroke. What this country wants is more sun and less bootjack.

Who says it's unhealthy to sleep in feather? Look at the Spring chicken and see how tough he is. A Buffalo girl never has her wedding dress made in that city, for fear somebody will say she was married in a buffalo robe. A Subscriber wants to know "why tea stores are painted red." It is because proprietors of these stores employ men to paint them that color. A Troy lawyer asked a woman on the witness stand her age. She promptly replied: "I sold milk for you to drink when a baby, and I haven't got any pay yet." An Irishman, quarreling with an Englishman, told him if he didn't hold his tongue, he would break his impenetrable head, and let the brains out of his empty skull.

A little fellow, turning over the leaves of a scrap book, came across the well-known picture of some chickens just out of their shell. He examined the picture carefully, and then, with a grave, sagacious look, slowly remarked: "They came out 'cos they was afraid of being boiled."

A clergyman at the Worcester Assizes, in the trial of a case that related to the soundness of a horse, was asked by a brow-beating barrister: "Pray, sir, do you know the difference between a horse and a cow?" "I know sir," was the reply, "the difference between a bull and a bully.—The one has horns and the other (with a bow to the barrister,) luckily for me, has none."

A loin of mutton was on the table, and the gentleman opposite, took the carver in his hand. "Shall I cut it saddlewise?" quoth he. "You had better cut it bridewise," replied his neighbor, "for then we shall all have a chance to get a bit in our mouths." A pretty girl out West told her beau that she was a mind-reader. "You don't say so," he exclaimed. "Yes," said she. "You have it in mind to ask me to be your wife, but you are just a little scared at the idea."—Their wedding cards are out.

His Interest in the Boy. A negro boy in Galveston came very near being run over by the locomotive of the special train. Had it not been that an old negro, at the risk of his life, seized the boy by the collar and jerked him backward just as the cow-catcher reached him, he would undoubtedly have been cut to pieces. A gentleman, who witnessed the heroic act, said to the old negro: "I suppose you are the father of that boy?" "No, sah, his fodder libs out in de country, and sends his boy to town to get his edification. De boy boards wid me, sah." "You seem to take a great deal of interest in him?" "Indeed, I does, sah. His fodder owes me foah two mums board ob dat boy; so you see dis ain't de right time foah him to be run ober by de kears."

A Safe Bet. Jenkins was traveling in Missouri just before the last Presidential election, and in the car, right across from him, two men were arguing as to the probable result of the election. Says one: "Hancock's the man." "No, sir. Garfield'll get it," was the reply. Suddenly an Adventist, sitting behind them, spoke up and said: "My friends do you know who is to be our next President? It is the Lord, who is coming at once, with his angels, to reign." Quick as thought, Jenkins, who imagined that some third-party candidate had been mentioned, sprung up, slapped the Millerite on the shoulder, and cried out: "Bet you $25 he don't carry Missouri."
