PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after Monday, May 10th, 1881, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Way, Mail, Pass, Exp., P.M., and Stations (Philadelphia, Harrisburg, etc.).

Westward and Eastward train schedules and notes regarding connections and fares.

Brief Items.

October 15th is the legal date for hunting partridges and wild turkeys.

See new advertisement of Gansman's Large Clothing House on 8th page of this paper.

Over two hundred ex-Confederate soldiers visited the Carlisle Fair on Wednesday last.

"Pink Eye" is the name of a new disease, which in some parts of the country is affecting the horses.

Lots of men go hunting, but few bring back any game. However they have the hunt and exercise.

Mr. Lucian Zimmerman, residing in the Cove is building a very large barn.—It was raised on Tuesday.

Mr. Isaac Crow, of Howe twp., lost a number of shocks of corn by fire a few days ago. The fire communicated from a clearing near by.

The Directors of Bedford county have adopted a uniform series of text books for the public schools. A similar step should be taken in every county.

A peach tree on the ridge near town has lost its reckoning and was, consequently, in full blossom the 1st day of October.

The Harrisburg Patriot says: One of the flourishing horse chestnut trees directly in front of the public buildings on the Fourth street pavement of the park is in bloom for the second time this season.

The Gantt House in Newport has been sold to Mr. David Bard, of Markleville, who will take possession the 1st of next April. The price paid is $12,000, which includes the entire corner up to the hardware store.

A severe storm of wind and rain passed over parts of Cumberland county on Wednesday evening. A short distance this side of Carlisle, fences were blown, and one buggy belonging to this county was upset by the wind. The occupants of the vehicle fortunately escaped injury.

On Tuesday, October 11th, Wallace DeWitt, administrator of Samuel Miller, will sell a horse, cow, heifer, wagons, farming implements, household and kitchen furniture. Sale to take place at the deceased's late residence, in Centre twp., 1 1/2 miles northeast of Bloomfield.

A large barn which was burned near Millersburg on Wednesday evening managed such a light, that persons in this borough were certain the fire was at Bally's or nearer. The building belonged to George Freeland, and contained the season's crop and several head of horses. Loss $5000.

The Elmira Advertiser laments the fact that while school children are drilled week after week on the geography of foreign countries, not a dozen has the least idea about the general location of towns and cities in the State where they live, and the railroads it would be necessary to take in going from one point to another. And this charge is too true.

A tramp sailor stealing a ride on a freight train had his skull fractured and received other injuries at Marysville on Wednesday last, while jumping from the train. Dr. Traver gave him surgical attention and he was then sent to the Harrisburg hospital, as the distance from Marysville to the poor house in this county is so great.

Personal.—Mr. S. S. Sheller, formerly of Duncannon, now a resident of Dillsburg, York co., was in town for a short time on Friday last. Sylvester looks as though this world agreed well with him.

We had a pleasant call one day last week from Mr. Samuel Wats, Jr., of McAllisterville, and Mr. Ed. Davis of Thompsonstown, Juniata county. The gentlemen were on their way to the Cumberland County Fair, and expected to have a good time.

Mr. John P. Steel, who received the Democratic nomination for county treasurer, was in town last week looking up his chances for election. It is pleasant to know that if Mr. Steel should be successful, a worthy and very competent man would be County Treasurer. If elected he proposes to move to Bloomfield.

Church Notices.

Presbyterian Church—Preaching next Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sunday School at half past 9 A. M. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening.

M. E. Church—Preaching next Sunday at 7 P. M. Sunday School at 9:15 A. M., and prayer meeting on Thursday evening.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the Post Office, at New Bloomfield, Perry Co., Pa., Oct. 1st, 1881:

Mr. E. W. Giddings, Miss Lillie Lougeneker. Persons calling for the above letters, please say they are advertised. SAMUEL ROATH, P. M.

Snakes.—John Frymier, of Rye twp., last week killed a horned snake in his chicken coop. The snake was copper color spotted with black. Mr. John Rhodes of the same twp., also killed a pretty large snake. His was a rattler with 13 rattles.

Weather Report.—B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of September.—Average of thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M. 72° 6' and of Barometer 30 inches minus 5 tenths. Average of greatest heat 79° 20' and of cold 62° 15'. Wednesday the 7th, was the warmest day, the Thermometer registering 95° in a cool shade, and Tuesday the 13th, was the coldest the mercury sinking to 48°.—There fell only seven-eighths of an inch of rain. This was the warmest and driest September for 15 years, and the Thermometer averaged at 8 o'clock A. M. 6° 3' higher than the month of August.

That Wheat.—The celebrated wheat contracted for with E. W. Giddings by a number of the farmers of Perry county as stated in the News a few weeks since arrived the other day—564 bushels in all, distributed at different railroad points, as follows: Newport 316; Millerstown, 118; Duncannon, 94 and Haley, 26.—Some of the farmers muttered considerably, but, we believe, most of them swallowed the dose.

However, we have heard from one of the "victims," who is no other than Wm. Hench, of Wheatfield township, the celebrated fruiter, who analyzed one quart of his two bushels of celebrated early Chili wheat, with the following result:

He writes: "I wish to give you a few points about the 'Giddings Wheat.' I received two bushels of the would-be Chili, and found it to contain too much tare to justify me in sowing it. I took one quart of the wheat and separated it, and found cockle, 19 grains; oats, 23 grains; rye, 3 grains; weevil eaten grains, 42; a small quantity of clover and some barn weevils. Therefore, 64 (the number of quarts in two bushels of wheat) times the amount of the above tare would be sufficient to destroy the entire crop that might grow on the two acres sowed with it."—News.

Duncannon Items.—From the Record we take the following: Capt. William Reighter of the Vigilant Hose Co., has been busy for several days at cleaning and fixing the Hose carriage.

Jos. VanFossen of this place, fell one day last week and struck his forehead against a stone, received a severe cut.

Mr. W. Stewart, who was engaged in taking out stones from the river, accidentally had the end of the middle finger of his left hand cut off by the falling of a large rock on it.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. A. R. Hess has had a relapse, and that the malaria is not relaxing its rigor on those who are so unfortunate to become its victim.

Accidental Shooting.—Yesterday afternoon about two o'clock while Mrs. John Lang, residing at corner of Forster street and James avenue, was up stairs making her beds she picked up a revolver of the Sharp pattern, which her husband kept under his pillow for self-protection.—The lady pulled the trigger back not knowing that the weapon was cocked, and in so doing discharged one of the barrels, the bullet passing through the palm of her left hand at an angle of forty-five degrees escaping the artery constituting the palmar arch, passing between the bones of the hand and escaping from the back of the hand, flying across the room a distance of about three feet, striking a door jam, entering the wood about an inch deep at an acute angle. Dr. J. D. Bowman rendered the necessary surgical treatment and pronounced the patient as doing well last evening, with very little hemorrhage the wound.—Harrisburgh Patriot of the 28th.

Singular Case.—About ten months ago, John Miller, a five year old son of Mr. Martin Miller of this place, accidentally swallowed a pin. The boy said that it had lodged in his throat, but the physicians failed to find it upon examination. For the last few months he has had some trouble in his throat, which could hardly be explained. Some attributed it to the pin, but it was hardly thought possible that it would remain in the throat so long, or indeed that it had lodged in the throat at all. His trouble grew more serious and efforts were made to find the pin. On last Friday morning the doctor noticed a small dark spot on his neck, and concluded that it was caused by the pin. When the lance was applied to the spot the pin almost forced itself out. This is very fortunate, as the throat is not a very good place in which to have that sort of thing, and then it was becoming very dangerous in this instance.—Everett Press.

Spring Twp. Items.—Isiah Gumphre recently moved from Ellitsburg, to Adam Small's house, in Centre twp.—Wm. Doughton, of Green Park bought Saml. Diehl's house and lot in Little Germany, and Saml. Diehl bought the Baker property near W. R. Dum's, in Spring twp. A general agent from Erie, Pa., has been at Ellitsburg for several weeks with six men and six teams selling washing machines. Thus far they have been successful.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

[From The Port Royal Times.] On Friday night of last week William Klinepeter, a freight brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, had the thumb on his right hand so badly smashed, by having it caught between the deadwoods, while engaged in coupling cars as to require the amputation of the whole thumb. He is now at the home of his mother in Turbett township, this county, nursing the injured member.

The Republican county Convention was held at Millintown on Monday of last week. The following ticket was placed in nomination: President Judge, Hon. B. F. Junkin, of Perry county; Associate Judges, Capt. James J. Patterson, of Port Royal, and Jacob Smith, Esq., of McAllisterville; Prothonotary, Wm. M. Allison, Esq., of Millintown; Treasurer, Jacob Lemon, of Patterson; County Commissioners, J. Banks Wilson, of Fayette township, and Hugh L. McMeen, of Tuscarora township; District Attorney, Mason Irwin, Esq., of Millintown; County Auditors, D. W. Weimer, of Richfield, and Lewis Degau, of Fayette township; Chairman County Committee, William Hertzler, of Turbett township.

[From The Democrat and Register.] J. B. M. Todd, one evening last week, lost a horse with colic, worth $80.—Rather a serious loss.

This vicinity was visited by quite a refreshing rain on Monday evening last.

Jacob Thomas, of Millintown, has the boss hog. It weighs 800 pounds live weight and is of the Chester county stock. Can any one in Juniata county beat that?

[From The Juniata Herald.]

On Saturday evening as H. A. Stambaugh was starting home, his mare got away from him at the Will's house and concluded to take the wagon home without a driver. She did so, and got home all safe, but after waiting at the barn for a few minutes to be unhitched and no one appearing, she became restive, attempted to turn round short which locked the wheels, scared her and she ran off bringing the spring wagon into collision with a post, upsetting the same and breaking both shafts. Becoming freed she ran down to Judge Elder's farm house and stood there until Harry who walked home came after her.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

[From The Newville Enterprise.] On Tuesday night last, an attempt was made to enter the post office of this place. Five holes were bored in the panel of the back door and then abandoned, and it is supposed the would-be thief was scared away by some one calling on Dr. Hays. Also we are informed that some one entered the ticket office of the depot on the same night. One hole bored through the parties who make these night calls would be better than five in the door.
