KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., GENTS:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours, N. P. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell!

Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for beast as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburg Falls, Vermont.

Have you read the new version?—Boston Post. Yes. Have you read the old one?—Philadelphia News.

A gentleman down East, seeing his pretty maid with his wife's bonnet on, kissed her, supposing her to be the real owner. He soon discovered his error through the assistance of his wife.

A receipt for lemon pie vaguely adds: "Then sit on a stove and stir constantly." Just as if any one could sit on a stove without stirring constantly.

Lady lodger—"Your dog, sir, is unbearable. He howls all night." Male lodger—"Indeed! Well he might do worse than that—he might play the piano all day!"

Remark about bachelors: Dean Stanley remained a bachelor until he was 46. Miss Anthony has done the same thing until she is—but let us not pursue this painful subject.

One can't be too careful with firearms. A Marathon boy carried a pistol in his coat pocket, and one day last week while he was in swimming the pistol unexpectedly went off. He has no suspicion as to who took it.

The following letter was received by an undertaker from an afflicted widow: "My wail is dead and wants to be buried to-morrow at Woner klock. U nose wair to dig the hole—by the side of my other two wails—let it be deep."

W. J. Florence tells of a country actor who just returned from a short provincial engagement. "How did you get on?" said Florence. "Not very well," replied the histori. "I played jack-knife engagements—I opened and shut the same night."

A good looking old German with long hair sat down or rather up in a barber chair and was asked whether he would have his hair shingled. "Mein Gott, no! I want some hair koot off. Vy vot put zum shinkles on it because?" "You dink I vas leaking?"

An eastern publisher has sent us a circular asking us to buy a "Book on the Black Bass," which gives all the particulars of how to land bass after they have been hooked. Well, if any one ever sees us with a big bass on a hook waiting to read a few pages in a book before we can find out how to pull him in, they can take our clothes. We shall just let nature take its course.

The boys are laughing about an operator in a Galveston office. He took a written message from old Mose, and after painfully scrutinizing it said, "You must write it plainer, uncle; I can't make head or tail of it." "Never mind, boss, jess send it off as it is. My boy Jim knows de ole man's handwrite. Hit's a shame your fadder nebber sent you to school so you cud read writin."

"See her kiss that ugly dog," said one gentleman to a friend on a Fourth avenue car in a loud whisper, calling attention to a woman who was lavish with her endearments of a pet poodle. She overheard the comment and glowering upon the unfortunate man said in vinegar accents: "It wont hurt me if I do." "Oh, I beg your pardon, madam but my sympathy was wholly with the poor dog."

Billy Gogganheimer, whose father keeps a liquor store on Austin avenue, could not understand his arithmetic lesson. He could not grasp the mystery of fractions. "Now, Billy," said the teacher, "suppose a man wants to buy a gallon of wine, which is four quarts, but your father has only three quarts, what could he do? How many quarts would he still need to fill up the gallon measure?"

"He wouldn't need any," responded Billy, "he would put a quart of water in the measure first and then the three quarts would fill it up to the top."

"Medicine Made Easy."

Brown: "Yes, Miss, I dew look prooty well, but I suiners horeful from rheumatic gout." Young lady: "Well, Brown, why don't you go to the dispensary down there and get something for it?" Brown: "Noa, noa, Miss, my wife is atakin' physic from theer, fur bronckiters, an' now an, then I takes a good long suck at it." Young lady: "Well, but it might be quite wrong in your case Brown." "Well you see, Miss, what I see is this, what's sauce fur the goose is sauce fur the gander!" replied Brown.

Unhealthy or inactive kidneys cause gravel. Bright's disease, rheumatism, and a host of other serious and fatal diseases, which can be prevented with Hop Bitters, if taken in time.
