KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will give you my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a rib-bone was forming. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully yours, F. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell!

Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one; don't know how long the spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used no bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unequalled success, to our knowledge, for heat as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. J. B. FANCY Goods and Notions, Some new at rivals, Cheap. F. MORTIMER.

Johnny said he didn't want to be an angel because he did not want to raise a pair of wings, but his sister replied, "You won't have to, just stick some feathers in your ears."

When an illiterate farmer was asked by a prosecuting attorney if he was a husbandman, he replied: "No, but I am to be married next month, and then I shall be one."

Minnie was two years old. She asked for some water one night. When it was brought she said: "Papa, can't you get me some fresh water? This tastes a little withered."

If you grasp a rattlesnake firmly about the neck he cannot hurt you, says a Western paper. To be perfectly safe it would be well to let the hired man do the grasping.

You can't fool Jenkins. He says it is well enough to say that whiskey is more dangerous than water; but he don't believe it. Thousands of people are drowned in water, but he never heard of one being drowned in whiskey.

If a man has a pile of boards, and the wind blows it over, why is that wind like a cat yowling under his window at night? When you give it up we'll tell you it is "because it disturbs his lumber!"

Look heah, Uncle Mose, you fooled me wid dat hoss I buyed from yer last week. He jest drapt dead in his tracks.

"He nebber drapt dead, in his tracks or anywhar else as long as I had him, goin' on twenty years. It must be some new habit he got" said the seller.

"My love for you is like that glowing fire," said Adolphus, as he blinked at the burning anthracite and then at the object of his affections. "What a grate full," she murmured, and the spark got quite warm trying to think how she spelled the sentence.

Old lady (who sleeps badly): "Now Mary, if I should want to light my candle, are the matches there?" Mary: "Yes, ma'am, there's wan." Old lady: "One! Why, if it misses fire or won't light—" Mary: "Oh devil a fear of it, ma'am. Shure I tried it."

A worthy deacon in a town not far away gave notice at a prayer-meeting the other night of a church meeting that was to be held immediately after, and unconsciously added: "There is no objection to the female brethren remaining!"

In the Senate Chamber at Washington, the Chaplain offered the Lord's prayer. When he had finished, Doolmey leaned over to Josonby, and remarked: "He stole that prayer, and I'll bet a 'boodle' on it, for I heard the same ideas expressed in Eureka at a funeral over two years ago."

A Dutchman in Albany went out to his milkman in the street with a dish in each hand, instead of one as usual. The dispenser of attenuated milk asked him if he wished to fill both vessels? The Dutchman replied, suiting the action to the word, "Dis is for de milluk, and dis for de water—and I will mix dem so as to shute mine self."

A clergyman was traveling through the Humboldt mountains with an old miner. Said the miner: "Do you really believe that God made the world in six days?"

"Of course I do."

"Well, don't you think," replied the miner, "that he might have put in one more day to an advantage right around here?"

Young Smith was walking out with the idol of his heart, the other evening, and they chose the favorite resort of lovers, near the dam. While admiring the falls and getting their noses reddened by the north wind, she burst out rapturously, "Isn't that dam splendid?" She nearly fainted away when Smith answered that he wasn't used to hearing young ladies swear, and another engagement is broken off.

A young man, who lives in Austin, and whose moustache is like faith, "the evidence of things hoped for, the substance of things not yet seen," called on his prospective father-in-law, and gave notice that he intended marrying the old gentleman's daughter at an early date. "It had better take place on some Saturday, so that it will not interfere with your school hours," sarcastically remarked the old man.
