It says "they scare all wolves away from the neighborhood, and many miles of line have been put up for the double purpose of securing rapid communication and immunity from the wolves. Large districts have thus been cleared of the dangerous and troublesome brutes." If the Norwegian poles are as small and poor as some of the poles between here and Newport we don't wonder ther are afraid of them, they might fear they would break off and fall on them.

Fine Pointoes.-We received a bag of New York potatoes from Messrs Kough & Bro., Newport, that beat anything in that line we have ever seen. They have a car load of them. They are large and cook nice and mealy. Judging from the size of these potatoes, the yield must have been great, and they would be valuable seed for our farmers to get.

October Weather .- B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of October, 1881:

Average of Thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 520 17' and Barometer 39' inches minus 5-tenths. Average of greatest heat, 550 40' and of cold 460 21'. Sunday the 2nd was the warmest day, the Thermometer registering 75°. Thursday the 6th, the coldest, the mercury sinking to BEO-first ice made on that morning. There fell 5 inches and 6-tenths of rain.

Barn Burned .- The alarm of fire yesterday evening, about seven o'clock, was caused by the burning of the barn of Mrs. Shaw, on Stratford's Hill, northeast of town. The building was entirely destroyed, with a quantity of wheat, hay and straw, and a reaper and other implements. As far as we can learn there was no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. -Lewistown Democrat.

A Curlous Watch .- A son of John S. Kistler, of Spring township, has a watch which shows the time of night, no matter how dark it is; but before it does this, it must be held to a lighted lamp for about a minute, after which, when it is placed in the dark, the face of the watch looks as if a light shone upon it, or as if it had been rubbed with phosphorus. It is said to retain this brilliancy for thirteen hours. Our correspondent says, "No one here can explain the cause of this peculiar brightness."

Singular Accident .- A boy about eleven years old, son of Mr. George Goldsmith. who reside some two miles below Scotland, on the road leading to Shippensburg was severely burned on Wednesday. The boy had been to Scotland in the morning and purchased a small quantity of powder to use in a pistol. He was on his way to school and had stopped at the Etter blacksmith shop near his home. The blacksmith, Mr. Barnhart, and his helper, Proctor, were working at a tire, getting it ready to put on. While watching the men at work, a spark from the hot iron flew, as was supposed, into the boy's pantaloon pocket where he was carrying the powder. The powder ignited, set fire to his clothing, leaving its painful track on both of his legs and up his side to the top of his head. The young lad was taken to his home where he now lies in a very critical condition.

The New Horse Disease. - Several cases of "Pink eye" have appeared in this county. In referring to this disease, the Philadelphia North American thus describes its effects and symptoms:

When the animal first becomes affected it refuses to eat, or in other words, "goes off its feed," and in a short time the eyes are half closed, watering and of a pinkish appearance. Up to this point the horses may be worked, though not too heavily, but the next stage of the disorder compels them to lay up. This consists of a swelling, beginning just above the hoof and gradually extending upward, until the legs are almost twice the natural size and the bowels badly affected. Considerable fever attends the disease, which runs its course in from nine to eighteen days. With care the horse can generally be saved, but the real danger comes in when the animal has apparently recovered and returned to work. They may be trotting along with no sign of anything wrong, and in a moment, without warning, fall dead in their traces. The disease is said to be contagious to some extent, and will often run through whole stables before being checked. The stable boss of one of the principal passenger rallways said yesterday afternoon that the disease was worse in its results than the epizooty of 1872. "Every spring and fall," said he, "we have more or less trouble with our horses from colds taken in bad weather, and the past ten days has laid up more animals than any corresponding period that I remember for twenty years. This year, however, it seems to be different. I'll start a horse out in the morning as bright as a dollar, and by the time he returns to the depot he's all broken up, eyes heavy, head down, and weak in the knees. This is often the case with those who have refused to eat, but when some of the best feeders act that way it is bad enough. If this thing keeps on, I don't know what some of the roads are going to do. The green horses, or, to be plainer, those recently purchased from the country, seem to be the soonest and worst affected. I consider pink eye far worse than the epizooty, and more to be dreaded, from the fact that after you put a horse back to work you never know when he is going to drop dead under the car. I have plenty of horses now that have come back to their feed, and would put them on the street again if it were not that such weather as this would surely throw them back into the hos-

The dwelling house of Jacob Negley, in Mifflin township, Cumberland county, was destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon last. Mr. Negley was away from home at the time. The wife was in the house but unconscious of any fire until the roof of the building was ablaze. She had not more than time to save two sleeping children in the second story. Only a few articles were saved and those from below stairs.

We have barely room this morning to announce the complete destruction by fire of the United Presbyterian church which occurred yesterday morning between two and three o'clock. All indications point to the fact that the fire originated in the first story of the building in the bible class room, situated at the south-west corner. A fire had been placed in the stove in the afternoon for the purpose of keeping the room warm for the ensuing day and was carefully examined by Mr. Fenton, the sexton, and found all right in every respect.—Light was seen in the room at eleven o'clock, but the parties seeing it supposed some one was in. At 2 A. M. the flames had gone up the stairway, back of the pulpit, and were consuming the building above when the first alarm was given. The entire loss is over $16,000, covered only by $7,000 insurance—$4,000, in the Eastpensboro and $3,000 in the Waynesboro. As the flue, pipe and stove were all in perfect condition, coupled with several suspicious circumstances that have come to light, it is believed that if was the work of an incenstances that have come to light, it is be-lieved that it was the work of an incen-

Gentlemen's Clothes. — The fashions for this fall are generally characterized by neatness in designs of goods as well as cut of garments.

The coat, however, most generally worn is the S. B. Walking Coat, both skirt and waist being of medium length, and the coat being rather close-fitting all over and buttoning high. If designed for dressy wear, the coat buttons with one button. If for business wear, a four-button coat is generally preferred, with false flaps on the side. For rough and Scotch goods the Sack Coat is in favor, and is cut rather short and snue-fitting. and is cut rather short and snug-fitting.
