

THE TIMES.

Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after Monday, Oct. 31st, 1881, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Westward and Eastward routes, including stations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburg.

Harrisburg Express West will stop at Duncannon at 10:30, Newport at 11:15 and Millersburg at 11:30 when desired.

Notes: West the Way Passenger leaves Harrisburg Daily—on other trains Daily except Sunday.

Atlantic Express, east, leaves Harrisburg at 5:15 P. M., Altoona at 6:00, Tyrone at 7:00, Hanover at 8:00, Middletown at 9:00, York at 10:00, Lancaster at 11:00, and Philadelphia at 11:30 A. M.

Brief Items.

Are our borough lamps generally considered a success? We think not.

Teachers institute this week in Juniata county.

What everybody says must be true, and everybody who uses it says the road between Bloomfield and Newport, never was so bad at this time of year.

A freight car while going at a good rate of speed was switched on the wrong track and went crashing into the erecting shop at Altoona on Tuesday last.

One of the lamp curiosities is a lamp for coal oil in which the wick never needs trimming and cannot be turned to as to fall into the oil.

Jno. McCarty, of Carroll twp., succeeded in shooting the wild turkey of the season, it weighed 24 pounds 10 ounces, who can beat it?

The youngest apprentice in a printing office is a "devil." The Carlisle Volunteer must have a "she devil," as they have an apprentice of that sex.

On Tuesday a week Mr. John Dunn, Marysville captured a young Gray Eagle, which flew from the hill back of that place and fell into the water.

We call attention to the advertisement regarding Henderson's blacksmith and coach shop. It is one of the best properties for that business in the county.

Mr. Josiah B. Clouser, of Centre twp., started last Friday with his family for Orange county, Florida, where he proposes to make his home in the future.

Thursday morning ice was an 1/4 of an inch thick on water that was in exposed places, and the mud was frozen hard enough to carry a buggy without breaking through.

Mr. John Hoffman, of Newport, had his hand badly hurt while coupling cars a few days since. He may have to lose two fingers by amputation. The accident happened near Altoona.

The stolen horse we referred to last week was taken from Samuel Gayman, of Fayette twp., Juniata Co. Twenty-five dollars reward is offered for the arrest of the thief and fifty dollars for both thief and horse.

A lady who missed the train at Allentown last week, and who was anxious to reach Harrisburg to catch the fast line west for Pittsburgh, leaving Harrisburg at 4:05, chartered an engine and car and was brought through in time. The run from Reading to Harrisburg was made in an hour and ten minutes.

A young man by the name of Jamison, of East Newport, an employe of Marshall furnace, while in the act of coupling cars, had the thumb and finger of one of his hands mashed on Wednesday.

James Wertz, another young man, also an employe of the furnace, had two of his fingers mashed while in the act of coupling cars.—News.

The Chambersburg Repository says: An owl flew into the Lutheran Church, this place, on Sunday morning and took its perch on the gas reflector, where it remained during the services, winking at the congregation. After church was dismissed Dan Nend succeeded in capturing it and presented it to the boys in our composing room, who have placed it with the rest of their innumerable curiosities, among which is a veritable ground hog.

Personals.—We are pleased to learn that James Work, a former employe of this office, has secured the foremanship of The Republic, a neat daily paper published at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Miss Annie Kitner is visiting her mother in this borough.

Was it a Horse Thief.—Mr. J. W. Soule residing one and a-half miles south of this borough writes as follows:

On Friday night about midnight or perhaps 1 o'clock on Saturday morning a buggy passed our place going toward Carlisle with a horse tied behind the buggy. At the time we thought it a little strange. We supposed it might be a horse thief and we waited for further developments.

Church Notices.

Presbyterian Church—Preaching next Sunday at 11 A. M. and 6 P. M. Sunday School at half past 9 A. M. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening.

Preaching in the Reformed church next Sunday at 10 1/2 o'clock.

Communion in the Methodist Church next Sunday at 10 1/2 A. M.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

[From the Herald & Mirror] On Thursday evening last, as Mrs. Mary Mentzer, wife of Mr. Francis Mentzer, of Frankford township, and eldest sister of Register Drawbaugh, was seated at a table sewing, the lamp was accidentally upset by her youngest daughter, and in a moment her whole person was enveloped in the burning fluid.

Her screams brought her husband, who was in bed at the time, to her rescue, who did all in his power to smother the flames. By using pieces of carpet, he succeeded, but not until she had been terribly burned. Dr. Hemminger was sent for and arrived a short time after. Upon examination, it was found that she had been burned from the face to the soles of her feet, and in such a dreadful manner that little could be done to alleviate her sufferings. She lingered until Friday afternoon at four o'clock, when death put an end to her sufferings. She was a kind and amiable wife, and her loss is felt severely, more particularly on account of the manner in which she lost her life. She leaves six children, the youngest—a small girl of four or five years of age.

Mr. Mentzer was burned severely about the hands and arms in his endeavor to save his wife. At present, he is not able to use his hands at all, both of them being covered with burns.

A number of flocks of wild ducks have been noticed on the Conodogunit with in the past week, and the gunners have been looking after them pretty sharply. A day or two ago one party tried their luck, and shot eight ducks out of a flock of about fifteen which they saw on the creek. They noticed several other flocks on the wing, but not within the range of their guns. The ducks were the common wild ones, generally known as mallard. This kind of wild game is quite rare and very good eating.

The Mountain Echo says: On Wednesday last an eel measuring 40 inches in length, 10 inches in circumference, and weighing 6 pounds, was taken from the water wheel at the upper paper mill in this borough.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

[From The Democrat and Register.] As James Yocum, who farms for Hon. Lewis Burchfield, was riding along at the turn of the Johnstown road near Patterson, on Tuesday afternoon, he saw an animal in the ravine below which he thought looked like a deer.—He dismounted, and with Mitchell Varney, who came by with his team, ran down and saw a fine young doe struggling through the briars and brush with a dog in pursuit. They caught it and immediately applied the knife to its throat. James and Mitch. think they are the champions, for while others have to go for their game they have theirs driven right to them.

[From The Port Royal Times.] Thieves entered the Lutheran parsonage at Port Royal some time during last Thursday night, but as the preachers like editors have very little of the "ready" lying around the house they realized nothing but a few biscuits. The parson says he hopes they will awaken him should they ever return.

About half-past eleven o'clock on Saturday night a gang of midnight prowlers entered the residence of Mr. W. T. McCulloch through a cellar window and ransacked the house. They gathered quite a lot of eatables, shoes, carpet, &c., together and packed them in bags preparatory to carrying them away, but were frightened off, leaving behind them their booty, by the loud noise made by the falling of a trap door leading from the kitchen to the cellar.

[From The Millersburg Sentinel.] David Musser came to town on Monday morning in a one-horse spring wagon. He tied his horse to a post at the foundry. The horse broke the post and ran away, dragging a piece of the post with him. The beast kept the middle of the road all the way out to Daniel Sieber's farm, where it was caught. Musser of course gave chase as fast as he could on foot, every moment expecting to find his wagon wrecked by the side of the road. He was highly gratified to find horse and wagon all right at the end of the mile and a quarter race.

DECEMBER MAGAZINES.

The December number of Lippincott's Magazine, which completes the second volume of the new series, is an excellent specimen of this bright and entertaining periodical. The opening article, "Fishing in Virginia Waters," by John C. Carpenter, is a fresh and lively piece of writing and beautifully illustrated. And this is followed by a great variety of other illustrations and articles of interest. The prospectus for the coming year shows that no effort will be spared by the editor and publishers to maintain the present popular character of the Magazine.

Specimen Number mailed, postage paid, to any address, on receipt of 20 cents. Yearly subscription $3.00. Address J. B. Lippincott & Co., Publishers, 715 and 717 Market Street, Philadelphia.

Demorests.

Meritorious publications are rendered doubly attractive when they are cheap. Demorests' Illustrated Monthly Magazine has had a prosperous career for seventeen years, and has become one of the leading periodicals of the United States, but its publisher is ambitious to not only have the best, but the most widely circulated, popular magazine in the world, and so has put the price down to Two Dollars per annum; and by a change of its former size, it is one of the best printed and gotten up monthlies for Twenty Cents, we have ever seen. The December number is admirable in all its departments.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE.—The December number of this popular and cheap family magazine is the best and most attractive that ever appeared. The illustrations of a summer tour through Switzerland and the account of the love making that accompanies them, are worth a careful reading, and a hearty laugh at the conclusion. The Christmas story is a model of its kind, and so is Captain W. H. Macy's yarn about "The Haunted Island," one of the mysteries of the Pacific Ocean.

Elliot Ryder relates a Mexican romance, and throws as much poetical description into his heroine's character and beauty as he dares to venture on in a true story. There are lots of other good things in this number. So don't fail to get a copy.

Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, at only $1.50 per annum, post-paid, and for sale at all the news-depots in the country at 15 cents a copy.

Speak to your neighbors about it, and get up some clubs this fall. Now is the time to start clubs for the new volume.

FOR THE TIMES. Let Charity Begin at Home.

Fort Emma, Nov. 19th 1881. Mr. Editor, Dear Sir—If you please we humbly desire to ask the Commissioners of Perry Co., or the Young Men's Christian Association, of New Bloomfield, to furnish the poor sinners who are imprisoned in Fort Beers, with a copy of the New Version of the Bible.

We would also state that during our imprisonment of over three months we have never had the pleasure of conversing with a minister of the gospel.

Yours Truly, in search of truth. JOHN and USOLE SAM.

Gentlemen's Clothes.—The fashions for this fall are generally characterized by neatness in designs of goods as well as cut of garments.

The coat, however, most generally worn is the S. B. Walking Coat, both skirt and waist being of medium length, and the coat being rather close-fitting all over and buttoning high. If designed for dressy wear, the coat buttons with one button. If for business wear, a four-button coat is generally preferred, with false flaps on the side. For rough and Scotch goods the Sack Coat is in favor, and is cut rather short and snug-fitting.

There is a tendency to cut Vests a little lower than last season, and with collars.

Fancy Vests are again coming into favor in London.

Those who wish to see the finest line of cassimers, overcoatings, &c., ever shown in this county are requested to call at the store of F. Mortimer and look over the assortment there shown, which represents the stock of the leading clothing house in the world. You can there make your selection and have a garment or suit made to order in the best possible manner. All garments are guaranteed as to fit or there is no sale. 43-44.

ST. ELMO HOTEL—Nos. 317 and 319 Arch Street, PHILADELPHIA.

Rates reduced to TWO DOLLARS PER DAY.—The traveling public still find at this Hotel the same liberal provision for their comfort. It is located in the immediate centres of business and places of amusement and the different Rail Road depots, as well as all parts of the city, are easily accessible by Street Cars constantly passing the doors. It offers special inducements to those visiting the city for business or pleasure.

Your patronage is respectfully solicited. JOS. M. FEEER, Proprietor.

Hats, Caps, Trunks, Men's Underwear and Shirts—no better line can be found than at M. DUKES & Co.

Flour and Feed for Sale.—The subscriber has Flour and Feed for sale at the residence of his son, Albert Fry, on the Krozier property, in Centre township. 26 FREDERICK FRY.

For Sale.—A House and Lot on 4th Street, Newport, Pa. Price $1000.—Apply to MILTON B. ESHELMAN, Newport, Pa.

WIDE AWAKE FOR 1882.

The Editors and Proprietors of WIDE AWAKE make the following announcement of leading features for 1882:

FROM THE HUDSON TO THE NEVA. The materials for a hundred tales of adventure are crowded into this one grand serial story of travel, by David Ker. The author has recently visited the countries where the action of this romantic story lies; Algiers, Greece, Turkey, Albania, Montenegro, Russia—thence into Borneo among the heroes and sorcery-loving Malays; hence all descriptions of places, people, manners and customs are accurate. The editors do not hesitate to say that as a brilliant story of adventure it is without an equal in current juvenile literature. This story will be fully illustrated.

THEIR CLUB AND OUBS. Is a serial story by a boy only fourteen years old. The fun and adventures of the out-of-school life of a mixed school of boys and girls are depicted with the gay touch of a boy who knows he has a capital story to tell and enjoys telling it. The story will have thirty six illustrations.

A LONG HISPANO ROMAN STORY. of the Second Century, by Rev. Edward Everett Hale, will be a leading attraction of the Christmas (Jan.) number, and will at once take its place in the long line of Mr. Hale's famous stories. Other brilliant writers of Short Stories will contribute to the magazine this year. Mrs. D. T. Whitney, Mrs. Helen Hunt Jackson ("H. H."), Mrs. A. M. Diaz, Sophie May, Mrs. Kate Gammett Wells, Sarah Orne Jewett, Mrs. Lizzie W. Champney, Norman Parry, R. W. S. (Mrs. Sherwood), Author of "Honor Bright."

Rich materials from the Folk Lore of all nations has been given our best balladists and artists for a series of

ILLUSTRATED FOLK-LORE BALLADS. In the way of informing Little Citizens about their future rights and responsibilities, WIDE AWAKE boldly takes the lead and does what no other magazine for young folks has ever done for its readers. Mr. Benjamin Vaughan Abbott, in

THE TRAVELLING LAW SCHOOL, will deal with American institutions and laws while

Rev. E. E. HALE, in his TO-DAY Papers, will discuss in his vivid, dramatic way, what is timely and important in the world's affairs from month to month.

Some highly interesting papers, under the quaint titles of OLD-TIME COOKERY and A SUIT OF HOME SPUN, descriptive of early days and ways, have been written and illustrated at one of the oldest New England homesteads.

SHORT STORIES FROM THE DICTIONARY, by Arthur Gilman, M. A., will tell the history of certain words in a way to suggest How to Use the Dictionary.

Mrs. Harris has prepared a most charming set of WILD FLOWER PAPERS, so fully illustrated from nature by Miss L. E. Humphrey

Among the more amusing features will be A Parlor Comedette, running through three numbers; Games, both for indoors and out, accompanied by diagrams and spirited illustrations; and fresh and humorous Studies of Country Life, in pictures without text.

In the October WIDE AWAKE was begun a Course of Readings, designed for our young folks who would like to read in a thorough manner about interesting and practical subjects. The magazine has been permanently enlarged to admit this

NEW EDUCATIONAL FEATURE. The Reading Course for 1882 includes the following series (12 papers each): Magna Charta Stories, edited by Arthur Gilman, M. A. Ways To Do Things, by Rev. C. R. Talbot, "Shirley Dare," &c. Old Ocean, by Ernest Ingersoll. Travelling Law School, by Benjamin Vaughan Abbott. Little Biographies—Music, by Hezekiah Butterworth. Health and Strength Papers, by able authors. What To Do About It, by the Wise Blackbird. Miscellaneous Papers on Natural History, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Chemistry, Geology, Botany, Ornithology, &c. Artists and Engravers have combined to produce finer illustrations than ever before, a very pleasant indication of which may be gathered from the following:

DELIGHTFUL EXTRAVAGANCE! Last spring the Publishers of WIDE AWAKE offered American artists $500 in Three Cash Prizes, for the Three Best Drawings for Frontispiece to the Magazine. The Prizes were won by the following in WIDE AWAKE during 1882. The Cash Award of $300.00, and the cost of engraving (nearly $300.00 more), amounting in total expense to $600.00, make the First Prize picture, A-Maying, the most costly frontispiece ever given in a juvenile magazine.

The Music will be under the editorship of Louis C. Elson, and in advance of anything before attempted.

OFFER EXTRAORDINARY! The Subscription Price of WIDE AWAKE is $2.50 per year; and as a special liberality the Publishers have decided to give each new subscriber for 1882, whose name, with $2.50, is received before January 1st, the October, November and December numbers of this year free.

D. LOTHROP & CO., Publishers, Franklin St., Boston.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

The undersigned Administrator, &c., of Samuel Miller, late of Centre township, Perry county, Pa., dec'd, by virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Perry county, will sell by outcry on the premises, on Wednesday, 23d day of November, 1881, at 12 o'clock a. m. of said day, the following described real estate to wit:

A Tract of Land, situate in Centre township, Perry county, Pa., containing 52 acres, more or less, adjoining lands of Wm. K. Shoaff, F. McKeenan, John Brown and others, having thereon erected a two story

FRAME DWELLING HOUSE,

Frame Bank Barn and other outbuildings. A portion of this tract is woodland and the balance is cleared, and in a good state of cultivation. There is a spring of good water near the dwelling house, and an excellent orchard of choice fruit trees. This property is located about half way between Bloomfield and Newport, the buildings are in good repair and it offers many attractions to purchasers.

Terms of Sale.—Ten per cent. of the purchase money to be paid when property is stricken off; ten per cent. on confirmation of sale, and the remainder on the day of April 1, 1882, when possession will be given and the deed delivered.

WALLACE DEWITT, Administrator, &c. November 1, 1881.
