On Saturday a week Mr. Philip Mc-Nemar slipped and fell from a load of wood and striking his shoulder, fractur-ed the bone. That accounts for Mac going around with his arm in a sling.

The lawyers of this county are unanimous in their opposition to the change in the supreme court district. Harris-burg suits them. They don't hanker after the gayeties of Philadelphia.

Rain is badly needed to raise the streams. Many wells at were never before known to fail, are now dry. The rains had this fall, have as yet had no effect on the deep springs.

A correspondent wishes the following question to be referred to the Teachers' Institute. "Should teachers be allowed to chew tobacco during school hours and squirt the juice around the room."

Some Philadelphia sportsmen, having had bad luck for other game, recently bagged over one thousand turtles from the small streams around this county, which they shipped to that city.

The Governor has respited Erb and Moyer, the Snyder county murderers, who were to have been hung on the 16th inst., until the pardon board can hear

The borough ordinance against selling coal oil, after lamps are lighted should either be repealed or enforced against all. Some comply with it while others pay no attention to it.

Teachers' Institute will commence on the 19th inst. Some information of val-ue to teachers will be found in another column, over the signature of Prof. Flickinger, County Superintendent.

Mr. T. M. Dromgold says that we were misinformed regarding the teachers in Carroll twp. The directors will article with only the second teacher for school No. 2, the first having resigned. The other schools, he says, are getting along

The wife of Dr. Jas. B. Eby of New-port, who had recently undergone a sur-gical operation, died on Wednesday night. The funeral took place on Fri-day, the remains being buried in the cemetery in this place.

A large black bear came as near to town a Cuba School House on Monday and gave a first-rate chance for a bear chase, which was indulged in by David Sieber, Samuel Thomas, and others, on Moyer's ridge, but the bear got away.

Mr. John Toemey, of Centre twp., while on his way to Newport, a short time since, lost his pocket-book containing $50. Retracing his steps, he found his book within a short distance of hishome, with money all safe.

Thiering in Liverpool .- Our Liverpool correspondent says: On Saturday night last the house of Wm. C. Brown of Liverpool Pa., was entered, and his pantaloons, two woolen shirts, about $3 in money, and borough orders and notes amounting to about $300, were stolen. The house was entered by forcing a win-

A Correspondent from McAllisters, Cumberland Co., says:

Four of our young hunters went to North mountain, on Thanksgiving to hunt wild turkeys. They explored almost every nook and corner for some distance above and below Waggoner's road, but were at last obliged to come home with one partridge.

They were not as successful as Master Charles Wolf who, a few days ago while watching a squirrel along the mountain, was surprised to see a turkey alight on the fence near him. To shoot it, was the work of a moment, and the result was a twelve pound roast.

While Jerry Kriner, our blacksmith, was shoeing a horse a few days since, the animal kicked him in the mouth knocking out one of his teeth.

A number of children in this vicinity are sick with scarlet fever.

> FOR THE TIMES. A Foolish Tramp.

Two betting fellows on what they'd seen, Urged on by Captain Whisky, I ween, Took a bet of afteen dollars, they say, Each one, of course, on his own way, How a barn was located beside the way That leads to Harrisburg city so gay. As no proof they could find, It occurred to their mind It occurred to their mind
To decide this bet there was but one way,
And that was go and see.
About midnight they start,
Tho' muddy and dark as could be,
And one, for fun, carried his gun.
When five miles they had got on their way,
They agreed to stop and try another day,
As the mud was so deep they got no sleep,
From the rain and the sleet
They agreed to retreat, and rally
From Cumberland valley
Across the mountain again, Across the mountain again, And so their effort was vain. [This tramp was taken by two young men from near Sterretts Gap.]

Gentlemen's Clothes. - The fashions for this fall are generally characterized by neatness in designs of goods as well as cut of garments.

as cut of garments.

The coat, however, most generally worn is the S. B. Walking Coat, both skirt and waist being of medium length, and the coat being rather close-fitting all over and buttoning high. If designed for dressy wear, the coat buttons with one button. If for business wear, a fourbutton coat is generally preferred, with false flaps on the side. For rough and Scotch goods the Sack Coat is in favor, and is cut rather short and snug-fitting.

There is a tendency to cut Vests a little lower than last season, and with collars. Fancy Vests are again coming into
