

THE TIMES.

Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after Monday, Oct. 31st, 1881, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Westward and Eastward routes, including stations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Altoona.

Pittsburgh Express West will stop at Duncannon at 10:25, Newport at 11:15 and Millstown at 11:31 p.m. when desired.

Brief Items.

Next Sunday a change of schedule in the P. R. R. is promised. The Advocate has put a Cottrel & Babcock power press into their office.

A Bad Mix.—Mr. J. R. Sanderson, of New Germantown had a very serious loss, one day last week. He had completed threshing his crop which amounted to 270 bushels of wheat, 248 bushels of oats, and 55 bushels of rye.

Weather Report.—B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of November. Average of Thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M. 49° 15', and of Barometer 30 inches minus 4 tenths.

Attaching Their Wages.—Alderman Jackson has issued sixty-four attachments on the wages of Pennsylvania railroaders who failed to settle their board bills with a hotel keeper at Patterson, Pa.

Store Robbed.—On Tuesday morning last between one and two o'clock, five robbers entered Mr. Henry Hirsch's store on Market street, by breaking the glass in the door and then unlocking it by some means or other.

John Adams, of Walker township, Juniata county, slaughtered four hogs recently, whose aggregate weight was 2,471 pounds. They were of the Poland-China breed.

Mr. Hirsch presented Mr. Mutzbaugh with a fine clock, and informed him that that was not all the compensation he would receive. This makes the fourth time Mr. H's store has been entered by robbers.—Duncannon Record.

A Boy Instantly Killed.—The Chambersburg Herald gives the following account of the killing of a boy at that place on Friday morning: Yesterday morning, a colored boy, aged about 15, named Charlie Lewis, was run over by a freight train in the Cumberland Valley road freight yards at this place and instantly killed.

The report that the fare on the P. R. R. would be four cents per mile, after January 1st, arose from an order to ticket agents to charge four cents for any distance less than a mile; but three cents per mile will be the charge for any distance greater than a mile, same as heretofore.

A man named Auner, residing at 504 Walnut street, died suddenly between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning. Mr. Auner retired last night in apparent good health and awoke about 6 o'clock, remarking to his wife that it would not be necessary to go to market to-day, he went to sleep again.

Mr. Wilson Lupfer, who went to Colorado, for the benefit of his health has returned without being improved. He is now at Millersburg.

Rev. J. B. Soule, who is now located at Lancaster, on Saturday a week, immersed twenty-six converts.

It is but a few months since we recorded the marriage of E. R. Sponser, Esq., and Miss Bessie Jackson, and now we are called upon to record the death of the bride. The sudden decease of one so amiable and universally esteemed, and who had so recently begun her wedded life with such bright prospects, was a sad blow to the many friends and relatives.

McAllisterville is in a ferment and

Middletown loses one of her citizens. The old story—a woman in it. About 200 different parties visited J. S. Thomas' big hog this week. It weighs eight hundred or a thousand pounds.

Henry Strayer, of McAllisterville, attempted suicide on Wednesday night by taking a dose of arsenic. Domestic infidelity is said to have been the cause.

On Wednesday evening of last week D. K. Fusselman, of McCulloch's Mills, was instantly killed by an empty engine near Manayunk station on the P. R. R.

The past ten days have been hard days on wild cats. John Tyson trapped a large one on Shade mountain, and has it alive at his place at the first look north of town, and Reuben Carter and Samuel Carabough each shot one not far from Johnstown.

Robert M. Foltz, a nine-year-old son Daniel Foltz living in Millford township was accidentally pushed from the portico of the Muddy Run school house one day last week.

Dr. Crawford and Banks were summoned to Lewistown last Thursday to render professional service to a freight train brakeman from Tyrone, named McClellan, who had been run over by a freight train of cars.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

One night last week, a certain man in North Middletown heard a noise in one of the rooms on the second-story of the house he was visiting. Arming himself he remained below thinking the burglar would come down shortly.

On Tuesday evening about 9 o'clock, our citizens were startled by the announcement of the sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Sallie Rutter. She was apparently in good health until a few moments before she died, and was on her way home from the house of some friend whom she had been visiting when she was met by an acquaintance to whom she complained of being ill.

LEGAL NOTICE. In the Court of Common Pleas of Perry county, notice is hereby given, that an application will be made to the said court, on Tuesday, the 30th day of December, 1881, under the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled an Act to provide for incorporation and regulation of certain corporations, approved April 29, 1875, and the supplements thereto, for the chartering of an intended corporation, to be called "The Women's Marriage and Beneficial Association for unmarried persons." The character and object of which is to issue certificates of membership in certain specified amounts, and to pay the parties for whose benefit the certificate was made, from the funds of the association, and to give all the rights, benefits and privileges conferred by the Act of Assembly and its supplements.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. The Perry County Teachers' Institute will convene in annual session in the Court House, in Bloomfield, at 1 o'clock P. M., on Monday, December 19th, 1881, and continue in session until the noon of the following Friday. In accordance with the provisions of an Act, approved the 9th day of June, A. D., 1881, the teachers of the county are allowed the privilege of attending the County Institute, and we shall expect the teachers to take advantage of this privilege. For those who are desirous of attending the Institute, questions are requested to bring with them pupils' work, prepared in accordance with the directions published in the county papers on the 10th of December, 1881. J. R. LICKINGER, Co. Sup't.

Exhibits of School Work at Teachers' Institute. The following will serve as an outline of the kind of pupils' work wanted for exhibition at the Teachers' Institute, to be held in Bloomfield, on Monday, December 19th, 1881: I Grade.—Specimens of printed or written work as far as practicable. II Grade.—Language. (1) Specimens of written work, including spelling of short words with proper syllabication. (2) Geography, including questions and answers on direction and distance, with description of school house and surroundings. (3) Arithmetic.—The writing of numbers. III Grade.—(1) Language. The spelling and definitions of words, with diacritical marks, and the general rules for capitals and periods. (2) Geography.—Township and county geography. (3) Arithmetic.—The working of easy problems in addition and subtraction, with explanation of signs used. IV Grade.—(1) Language. Definitions of parts of speech, sentences, and the construction of sentences from 60 words. (2) Geography.—Descriptive, including questions on Pennsylvania and map drawing. (3) Arithmetic.—The fundamental rules, with definitions and solutions of common practical problems. (4) History.—Local, with explanations of terms. V Grade.—Language.—Analysis and synthesis of sentences. The writing of equivalent forms of expression and short compositions. (2) Geography.—Description and relative importance of the different political divisions. (3) Arithmetic.—Practical problems, including the writing of checks, drafts, notes, receipts, and the use of percentages and practical measurements. (4) History.—County, State and National with biographical sketches of prominent men of our country. The above covers only the common school branches, but the teachers of schools in which higher branches are taught, are also requested to bring specimens of work done in those branches. We desire a full exhibit of the work of the different schools. The teachers of the borough schools are requested to classify their work in conformity with the county course of study, so that the proper comparison may be made. All the work from a school, apart from the copy books, must be written neatly on paper with name and age of pupil. Then bound together and labelled with name of school, teacher and district. We earnestly request all the teachers of the county to take part in this display, so that the public may be able to see the kind of work done in our schools. Mr. Frank Hollenbaugh, of the Bloomfield schools, will take charge of this work, and teachers are requested to place it in his hands at the opening of the institute. J. R. LICKINGER, Co. Sup't. Bloomfield, December 6, 1881.—4
