Guiding Light

On the verge of ending their search, Phillip, Fletcher, and Blake found Alexandra. When Alex saw them, she ran to them yelling, "I'm saved!" The foursome embraced, and then they sat down to collect their thoughts and to hear how Alex had survived for such a long time on the island. Fletcher had strong doubts about the truth of her story, but Alex showed them the compound where she stayed telling them that it must have been built during the war. During Alex's little tour, Roger and Mac followed them unnoticed. Back at the Spalding estate, Nadine explores the secret room where she found the crutches. Alan sneaks upon her while she's in there, and she puts two and two together. Alan was the one who hit Henry over the head with the crutches, and Nadine finds this to be the perfect opportunity for blackmail. Because Alan had been ruffling through confidential files when Henry walked in on him, Nadine felt that she should know what Alan now knows; and now she has the perfect chance to get it. Alan tries to convince her that he knows nothing, but he did overhear a conversation between Alan-Michael and Phillip that told him that Meredith's baby was not Rick's but Phillip's. Will Jefferie's gets a disturbing letter from Mindy saying that they should go their separate ways, and that he shouldn't try to find her.

Maureen is offered to be a national talk show host on the show Holly manages. Maureen is flattered, but she is worried about leaving her present position. Holly tells her that she can have both her job at the Journal and the talk show.

Santa Barbara

Cruz tells Greg that he keeps seeing Sandra's face in his mind. Greg informs Cruz that, while she is being held hostage, Sandra may be using mental telepathy to contact him. This seems good to Cruz because he is under surveillance, and they can find her through visions he has instead of leaving the house. Eden tells Cruz about his brother's daughter, and she says that she even went as far as to look for the birthmark in the same place as Adrianna's. Cruz finds out later that his brother and sister-in-law are the parents of a healthy baby girl. Lisa arrived at work to find Mason in a drunken state. She lectures him about abusing alcohol and warns him about driving. Of course Mason leaves, is pulled over by the police and arrested.

Cruz was tipped off about a woman seen being dragged into a beach house outside of town by a crippled man. He rushes to the location in hopes of finding Sandra alive.

Another World

Russ Matthews is back in town. At the Corey mansion, he informs Mac that he knew about the job opening at the hospital because of Iris.

Russ calls Charlene to tell her that he is in town. Charlene then explains to John about her ex-husband.

At Club Paradise, Mac surprises Ada with their dinner guest, Russ. While they were eating, John and Charlene walk through the restaurant. Russ makes his way over to their table, and introduces himself to John.

At the Bay City Airport, Mitch and Felicia are about to leave. Matt pleads with them one last time to stay, and Mitch gives in and takes the luggage off the plane.

Stacey and Strongman are in an alley trying to find Felicia's gun. When Stacey is left alone for a moment, a hoodlum tries to rip her clothes off. Strongman sees the attack, and saves Stacey just in time.
