

Amherst Saxophone Quartet Crossword Puzzle

Cultural and Performing Arts Series to start

At 8:00 pm on Tuesday, September 26, the Amherst Saxophone Quartet will kick off the 11th year of the Cultural and Performing Arts Series at Penn State-Behrend. This event will take place in the Reed Lecture Hall.

The Amherst Saxophone Quartet is in its 11th year of concert performances with the original members: Salvatore Andolina, Michael Nascimben, Stephen Rosenthal, and Harry Fackelman.

The Quartet performs standard chamber music works, along with a unique library of 20th century composers, including many commissioned works, music of the Baroque, Ragtime and American popular song.

Their first release for MCA Records, "All Bach," was completed on in February.

This event, as well as all events in the Cultural and Performing Arts Series, is free to all faculty, staff, students, and the community.

The next two events are being held on Parents and Families Weekend, October 6-8. "Four Guys Standing Around Singing" will perform at 9:00 pm on Friday, October 6 in the Reed Lecture Hall and the "Zagst-Feldman Due" will perform at 11:00 am on Sunday, October 8, in the Wintergarden.
