The scoring was spread out among the Lions also. Making eight of nine from the free throw line, Demski paced Behrend with 20 points. Baughman hit two treys while having 16 points. Gurska added 15 markers, with all of his points coming off of five three-pointers.

Sophomore forward Jeff Cowan had 11 points, hitting two shots from the three-point area. Cooper knocked down 10 points and led the Lions in rebounding with eight boards.

The Saxons shot 50 percent from the field while hitting 14 of 23 from behind the arc.

Alfred upped their record to 12-10 on the year with hopes of playoff action.

The Lions play at Keuka tomorrow for their last game of the season.

NOTES: Forward Shawn Bullock did not dress for the last two games for personal reasons....Demski needs only 167 points to break the men's school scoring record. The mark was set in 1973 by Glenn McKinney, who finished his career with 1,276 points.
