The women's tennis team ended their season by finishing fourth in the Cardinal Invitational Tournament at St. John Fisher College.

The tournament was held on October 5th and ran through October 6th. Four teams competed in the tourney other than Behrend, including St. John Fisher, Ithaca, Nazareth, and Wells.

Behrend placed fourth out of the five teams with a score of 10.5 points.

Representing Behrend in singles were Nicole Anderson, Melissa Clark, Steffani Rasche, and Karen Major.

Anderson won her first singles match, over Laura Pearson of Nazareth, 6-2, 6-4. She lost her second match, 6-4, 6-2, to Sacha Doron, also of Nazareth, to end her tournament play.

Clark won her first singles match 6-3, 7-6, over Michelle Vournard of St. John Fisher. Clark also lost in her second outing (6-1, 6-1) to Ithaca's Kenja Ackerman.

Rasche also won in the first round, edging Patrice McFadden of St. John Fisher 4-6, 6-3, 6-4. Rasche then lost, 6-2, 6-2, in her next match.

Major lost her first and only singles match, 6-1, 6-1, falling to Nazareth's Julie Emmich.

In doubles, the team of Anderson-Rasche won 6-3, 6-0 in the first round, topping the tandem of McFadden-Fitch of St. John Fisher. They then lost their second match, to Ithaca's pairing of Ackerman-Paul 7-5, 6-4.

The team of Clark-Major dropped their first round match, 6-2, 6-1.

This was Behrend's fourth year competing in the tournament. The Lady Lions earned more points in this year's tourney than in their previous three visits.

"We really played well," said Head Coach Dan Gallegos. "It was a nice way to end the season."

Despite the team's final record of 2-8, Gallegos says he is confident about the future of women's tennis at Behrend.

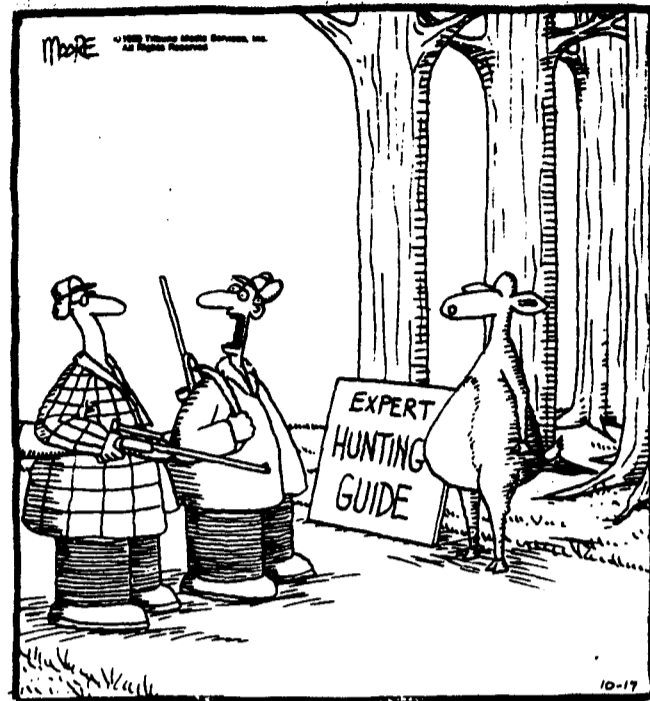

"We have definitely laid a foundation for the future," said Gallegos. "I've never seen people work so hard. Coaching the women was a lot of fun. I really enjoyed coaching them."

The team is looking to have four players back for next year. They include Anderson, Major, Kathy Nicholls, and Jennifer Scribner.
