The men's tennis team ended their season with an up-and-down weekend pair of matches, first scoring a decisive win over St. John Fisher, then losing 8-1 to Carnegie Mellon University.

Behrend came from behind to defeat St. John Fisher 5-4 on Saturday. After being down 2-4 in singles play, Behrend swept all three of their doubles matches to win the contest.

Singles winners were Chuck Keenan and Keith Stark. Keenan won 6-7, 6-1, 6-3 while Stark played to a 6-1, 6-4 victory.

In doubles action, Keenan/Stark won 6-2; Good/Edwards won 7-5, 6-1; and Smith/Spangler won 7-5, 6-1.

Coach Gallegos said, "Our doubles team played well," said tennis coach Dan Gallegos. "They were at their best."

The Behrend netters didn't fare as well the next day when they went up against Carnegie Mellon's squad. The only point Behrend won in the match came from Bill Stolar. Stolar defeated CMU's Dave Alley 6-3, 6-4 in the number five singles spot.

On April 23rd, Behrend lost to Buffalo State 5-4.

In singles play, Behrend won two of six matches. Steve Smith won 6-4, 4-6, 6-0 and Bill Stolar won 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

In doubles, Keenan/Stark won 7-6, 0-6, 6-1 and Smith/Spangler won 6-3, 6-3.

Behrend finished the year at 3-10. Gallegos said the players gave a tremendous effort and worked hard all year.

Chalk up another run

Comin' back atcha: Sophomore Mike Schell slams a return against St. John Fisher.

IN THE BLEACHERS by Steve Moore

In Michael's recurring nightmare there are two outs in the ninth and he is standing naked at the plate before a capacity crowd at Yankee Stadium holding a Whiffle bat and Nolan Ryan is on the mound.

The Collegian would like to wish everyone a safe and enjoyable summer. Until next year... WE ARE OUTTA HERE!
