The back of the Mack: Here is the rarely seen rear of the newly-acquired Mack Estate, which eventually will be used for offices and conference rooms.

Homecoming Weekend Activities set

"Homecoming Weekend should be a real exciting time for parents, students, families, and alumni to see Behrend at its best."

The highlight of Homecoming is accented Saturday night when the Speaker Series Program presents Jim and Sara Brady. Their program, entitled,

"Thumbs Up," addresses the issue of gun control. Mr. and Mrs. Brady are both key lobbyists for gun control. Jim Brady was the White House Press Secretary under President Reagan and was injured in the assassination attempt on the president.

Homecoming Weekend comes to a close Sunday morning with brunch in the Wintergarden.

This year's Homecoming Weekend, entitled "Building a Tradition," has an added feature by having alumni participate for the first time. Behrend welcomes back their alumni by having an Alumni Registration and Welcoming Reception on Friday.

Also scheduled are an Alumni Society Meeting and Dinner held on Saturday as well as an Alumni Continental Breakfast on Sunday morning at the Days Inn Hotel.

"We're very enthused to have about 50 alumni coming back to Behrend to participate in the Homecoming festivities," said Fagan.

"The Homecoming Weekend will give the alumni a chance to recollect, the parents a chance to see what their sons and daughters are involved in and give the students a chance to show off their college," said Shields.

The annual Homecoming Weekend will give all participants a chance to enjoy Behrend in full bloom and give students the chance to show off their pride and lion spirit.

Alumni Fellow Award

American business is to work harder to keep our competitive edge."

Aside from receiving the Alumni Fellows Award, Fasenmyer spent time in the classroom, sharing his experience in the international makert place with students.

Fasenmyer was nominated for the award by Behrend's development department and Provost and Dean John Lilley. His nomination was then sent to University Park to be evaluated by President Thomas, who considered his and other nominations on the basis of their qualifications and reasons for nomination.

Port-Au-Prince, Haiti -- A military general led an armed takeover of the government Tuesday, forcing Jean-Bertrand Aristide, the first democratically elected president of Haiti, to flee the country. About 100 people were killed in the coup led by Brig. Gen. Raoul Cedras. Cedras had once been loyal to President Aristide, but said the coup was needed to stop an "apprentice dictator." The ousted president warned his countrymen more bloodshed is imminent if democracy was not restored soon. Ironically, Cedras said in a 15-minute speech that the coup was an attempt to restore democracy.

Washington -- Legislation was passed by Congress Tuesday which would give unemployed workers up to 20 extra weeks of benefits, but President Bush has said he will veto the bill. The $6.4 billion legislation is designed to help the 300,000 Americans who have already exhausted their standard 26 weeks of unemployment benefits. President Bush is against the measure because he said the nation is out of the recession. Senate supporters of the bill fell two votes short of the 67 they would need to override a veto which will come later this month.

Washington -- Several CIA co-workers of Robert Gates, President Bush's nominee to head the CIA, testified Tuesday that Gates provided false information to the White House. Gates was head of the CIA's intelligence analysis team and is now acting CIA director. Gates' opponents claim he skewed intelligence information about the Soviet Union in order to support the anti-communist policies of the Reagan administration and his own strong anti-Soviet views.

Los Angeles -- A $12 million paternity suit was filed against Mike Tyson Tuesday. The 26-year-old woman, Natalie Fears, claims Tyson broke his promise to establish a $5 million trust for 1-year-old D'Amato Tyson and provide lifetime support for her. The Superior Court lawsuit seeks $5 million in trust money, $5 million to support Ms. Fears and punitive damages of $1 million each from Tyson and his boxing promoter, Don King.

Los Angeles -- Sonny Bono, former pop singer in the duo Sonny and Cher and current mayor of Palm Springs, announced his candidacy for the U.S. Senate on Tuesday. "It's no joke," Bono said. "I may have to wear that Sonny and Cher thing for a while, but I'll overcome that." Bono is a Republican moderate who supports abortion rights and a stronger U.S. energy policy that would not require offshore oil drilling in California.
