6, 15-4.

The stinging Baldwin-Wallace Yellowjackets swarmed to an early 6-0 lead in the first game.

The Lions pulled to within 3-6 on kills by Carrie Grzejka and Kellie Burkhardt and a Kellie Jordan serving ace. However, the Yellowjackets stung back and cruised to a 15-3 victory.

The Lions came back strong in the second game and took an early 5-1 advantage, but Baldwin-Wallace rallied back and won 15-6.

In the third game, Behrend started out strong once again and had an early 3-0 lead, but once again Baldwin-Wallace stormed back. This time they won 15-4.

Tuesday's loss was Behrend's third straight. They dropped a doubleheader Saturday against Washington and Jefferson 15-8, 15-7 and Fisher 15-9, 15-13.

Pam Allshouse and Bridgett Nelson played well against Washington and Jefferson.

"Pam and Bridgett were tough. Pam led the team in kills and had three serving aces and Bridgett had three kills," said Coach Jan Wilson.

Against Fisher, Grzejka had seven kills, while Amy Stranahan and Burkhardt had four kills apiece.

"Pam Torelli played real well for us on Saturday. She works real hard and doesn't make many mistakes," mentioned Wilson.

The Lady Lions will try to end the season on a winning note Thursday when they travel to Theil College.
