

Survey says...

Craig Breter/The Collegian

Show and tell: Behrend alumni field questions from students in the School of Business during the first of this year's alumni panels. The next panel, slated for Wednesday, Nov. 6, will give students in the Division of Humanities and Social Sciences a better idea of what to expect in the "real world."

AMERICAN PICTURES

by Jacob Holdt

A multi-media show of a Danish vagabond's personal journey through the American underclass

Started out with only $40 - sold blood twice a week to buy film for his camera

5 years and 118,000 miles of hitchhiking later, 12 of his American friends had been murdered

Lived in 400 American homes, from the Rockefellers to the poorest southern sharecroppers

Portrays in music, words and 3,000 pictures the America he came to love...an America you've never known

Shown 11 times in Harvard, 12 in Cornell, 7 in Stanford, 7 in Yale, 17 in Berkeley...

Tuesday, November 5th, 1991 at 7 p.m. Reed Lecture Hall

World

Madrid, Spain -- An Arab-Israeli peace conference began yesterday in Madrid, despite outbreaks of violence in Lebanon and the Israeli-controlled West Bank. Both President Bush and Mikhail Gorbachev asked Middle East leaders to put the past behind them and "act responsibly with great understanding." Both Israeli and Palestinian leaders made last-minute gestures of good will, despite the guerrilla attacks. In Lebanon, guerrillas killed three Israeli soldiers and wounded 11. Israel retaliated with rocket attacks against a pro-Iranian group. A roadside bomb killed three Israelis and wounded six after it exploded near the outskirts of Aramta, a village on the edge of Israel's proclaimed security zone.

Nation

Washington -- The Bush administration stepped up the pressure on Haiti Tuesday to restore democracy with tightened U.S. trade sanctions. Basic food shipments, essential medicines and commercial flights are not affected by the new sanctions. The State Department has ordered the departure of all non-essential U.S. government personnel from Haiti as well as dependents of U.S. employees. All U.S. citizens have been urged to leave the country as soon as possible.

Los Angeles -- Hundreds of picketing nurses were ordered back to work on Tuesday by Los Angeles County Judge William Huss. The judge said he wasn't concerned about contract problems, the county or the nurses. "I'm concerned about the sick people," he said. Union officials are considering whether or not to defy the court order.

Pennsylvania -- Former governor Dick Thornburgh's lead over Harris Wofford has dwindled to six percent only a week before voters decide which one of them will finish the term of the late Sen. John Heinz. At the beginning of the campaign most political analysts predicted Thornburgh's popularity in his home state would crush Wofford. But months of hard, and at times vicious and dirty, campaigning by Wofford and Thornburgh have left Commonwealth voters split on who will be the next senator. Both camps are making last minute efforts to take the lead before the Nov. 5 election.

Sarasota, Florida -- Sarasota County prosecutors have made Paul Reubens, better known as Pee Wee Herman, an offer he probably won't refuse. The 39-year old actor has been charged with indecent exposure after an incident at an adult movie theater. Under the deal, Reubens would plead no contest and the state wouldn't seek a guilty plea. He would, however be responsible for a $50 fine and 50 hours of community service.