Police Report

Students plead guilty to harassment charges

by Jeff Johnson
The Collegian

Two students plead guilty last week to charges of harassment by communication. They were each fined $269 and sentenced to 10 days in jail. However, their jail time was replaced with 100 hours each of community service on campus.

Theft

Two Tigriss Hall students reported money and personal items were missing from their room. Neither the amount of money or nature of the personal items was disclosed. Police and Safety officers are continuing their investigation.

Lawn Damage

The owner of a pickup truck will have to pay damages to the lawn behind Dobbins Hall after exiting a parking space backwards last Sunday. The owner, who was parked into his space by another vehicle, backed over the curb, a sign designating that space as reserved for authorized fire department personnel and left tracks in the lawn.

Vending Machine Robbed

Police and Safety officers are investigating the robbery of a vending machine in Lawrence Hall. The machine's snack contents, as well as money, were removed.
