

The Housing and Food Service Athlete of the Week

Rick Clark
Senior
6'2" Guard
Brockway, PA
Accounting

In the three games played this week, Clark regained his shooting touch and helped spark the Lions to three straight wins as they push for playoff possibilities.

In a 66-44 win over Thiel College, Clark hit for 17 points. The 6'2" guard hit for four treys, was perfect from the line, and grabbed three rebounds.

In a 80-66 road win over Grove City College, Clark poured in a career high 27 points in an unbelievable performance. Rick went 8 x 17 from the floor, 5 x 9 from behind the arc, and 6 x 8 from the line. He also grabbed a team high six boards.

In a Monday revenge match versus Dyke College, Clark picked up 18 points and seven assists. He was 11 x 12 from the line in the contest.

For the week Clark averaged 20.7 ppg., shot 10 x 22 from three-point territory, and hit 20 x 23 freebies (87 percent).

Housing and Food Services is proud to sponsor an Athlete of the Week. For being selected Athlete of the Week, the student will receive a complimentary two-item pizza from the Wintergreen Cafe.

IN THE BLEACHERS
