LouLou uncovers
the Flashilator

Dear LouLou,

I have a serious problem. I have an irresistible desire to tear off my clothes in public. So far I've been able refrain, but I'm beginning to weaken. I fear the embarrassing consequences of such an action, but I don't feel can resist much longer. What should I do?

Signed,
The Flashilator

Dear Flashilator,

Go for it! Just let me know where and when.(Wink, wink.)

LouLou

Alcohol vs. Books

The typical college student spends more money for alcohol than for books !!!

Once again, the obvious rears its ugly head.

Letters Policy

Do you have an issue, a complaint or comment that you would like to express to our reading public through a letter? Would you like to see that letter printed right here on this very page?

Then do this: find a quarter and call someone who cares, 'cause we don't.

Frankly, we're very tired of people who send in letters blathering about stupid, petty problems. Most of you can't write to begin with, and those that can don't have much to say anyhow. In short, get a grip. And while you're at it, get a life. And maybe a better underarm deodorant while you're at it.

But for those that persist in sending letters, they may be no longer than 200 words in length (yes 'a,' 'the' & 'and' count) and must be signed by at least two people and Jimmy Hoffa.

Letters will be edited for style, content, taste and whatever else it takes to make them interesting and provocative.

Dear Editor:

Seeing how the Soviet Union has dissolved, and its army with it, I feel that this would be an excellent time to increase Behrend's Police and Safety force.

Here's a few suggestions. A motorized infantry regiment would be perfect for breaking up underage drinking parties. Secondly, a few KGB border guards would cut down on the number of parking violations on campus. Lastly, a Spetnaz detachment would be perfect for patrolling the Gorge and discouraging vandalism.

These units would be relatively cheap, seeing how they have been recently unemployed. The letter writer would be able to provide the necessary contacts.

The letter writer denies all accusations of past ties with the former Soviet Union.

Buy this to run the vast machinery of the state, damnit!
