The Housing and Food Service Athlete of the Week

Lori Wolfe Sophomore Softball pitcher Pittsburgh

In a 3-1 week for the 15-5 Lady Lions, Wolfe picked up two wins on the mound without a loss.

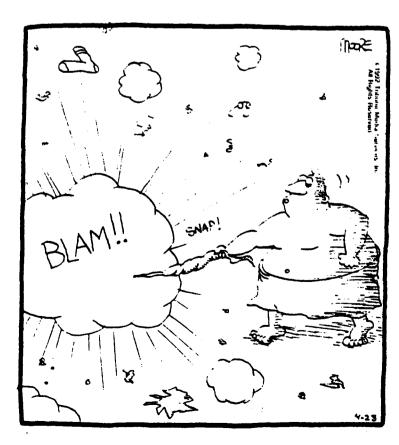

Wolfe entered the seventh inning against Notre Dame with a no-hitter, and finished with a two-hitter and a 3-1 win.

Monday, Wolfe downed Bethany College 4-3, halting the Bisons' 16 game winning streak. Bethany's record dropped to 21-7.

Overall, Wolfe enters the final four games with a 6-1 record and an earned run average under 2.00.

Housing and Food Services is proud to sponsor an Athlete of the Week contest. For being selected Athlete of the Week, the student will receive a complimentary two-item pizza from the Wintergreen Cafe.

IN THE BLEACHERS by Steve Moore

May 4, 1927, South Bend, Indiana: First baseman Dominic Mumalo discovers that wetting the tip greatly enhances the effect of a snapped towel.

Men's tennis enters final match with 7-5 record

by Talley Sjoberg
The Collegian

As the spring semester winds down to a close, so does the men's tennis season. With only one more match left to play, the Lions are getting ready to say goodbye to a successful year.

"Now that the season is almost over, we get the chance to reflect moved to Pennbriar due to heavy

Whatever the weather, the team put on a great performance.

Eric Good lost a #1 singles to Andy Chambers, 6-4, 1-6, 7-5.

Jonathan Chase continued his winning record by beating Tom Macron 7-6, 6-2.

Todd Kalinsky managed to defeat PSB captain Chuck Keenan

The men's tennis team fought just as hard in the doubles, with Keenan and Chase teaming up to easily defeat Chambers and Rosenblid 6-4, 6-1.

Good and Edwards had a little more trouble at second doubles losing 6-3, 7-6, to Allen and Kalinsky.

Van Tassel and Dess also lost by a close score of 7-6, 6-4 to

"Now that the season is almost over, we get the chance to reflect on what we did and didn't do well and work on those points."

-Sophomore Eric Good

on what we did and didn't do well and work on those points," commented sophomore Eric Good, the men's number one player.

Although they're still a young team, there isn't much that the men's tennis team didn't do well.

On April 22, they took on Buffalo State. Starting off on the Behrend courts, the games were in two tough sets, 7-6, 7-6.

Joe Dess made his contribution to the team by topping Jonathan Allen of Buffalo State 6-4, 5-7, 6-4

Freshman Karl Van Tassel also pulled off a big victory 5-7, 6-3, 6-2, by beating Jeff Osborne. At six singles, Craig Edwards of PSB was defeated by Eric Rosenblid 6-2, 6-1.

Marron and Osborne.

Buffalo State came away with a 5-4 victory over the Lions, but this is not a disappointment to the Penn State squad.

With an overall record of 7-5, the team has really proved, as Coach Gallegos says, that "a hungry Lion hunts best."

