The Penn State-Behrend men's soccer team had their first victory last Tuesday against Westminster with a score of two to one. Their record now is one and five, as they were defeated three to zero by S.U.N.Y. Brockport on Saturday.

The victory on Tuesday was big relief for the players. "It gave us the confidence we needed for the remaining part of the season. Now all we have to do is put it all together.", says Rusty Brown, a sophomore on the team. "We did a real good job. We out shot and out cornered them" comments Coach Grace on the victory.

The two goals were scored by Donovan Zimmerman and Rob Taylor, both freshmen on the team. In fact all of the goals scored this season were by freshmen. Matt Montgomery scored the first goal of the season (against Baldwin-Wallace). "Scoring the first goal was exciting. It gave the entire team a boost of confidence," says Montgomery.

Last Saturday's game was a defeat to S.U.N.Y. Brockport. The Lions had difficulty keeping up with the fast speed exhibited by their opponents.

Grace.

One position the Lions are lacking in players is goalie. Brett Erway, the starter suffered a broken leg last week. Second-string, Jason Schardt goal keeper is out with an injured knee. Taking over the responsibilities of goalie is Brown, who is new at playing the position.

This weekend the Lion's play St. Vincent for Homecoming. The team is looking forward to the game because they defeated them last season in their opening game.

Looking back on the season thus far, Senior Captain Rick Nese had this to say, "The freshman came through for us in a big game. However we need a lot more contributions and efforts from everyone to be successful."

Another affliction the team is continuously faced with is injuries. "From where we started the season with the starting eleven players, four of our starters are missing," says
