together because that's what sports are all about," she said.

Lori doesn't believe in striving for individual goals, but that they should come if everyone plays together." I'm more of a team player because that's important to a sport and a team. You have to make the Chemistry work between players," she said.

Coach Jan Wilson has nothing but praise for Lori. "She is probably one of the most driven, hardest working players I've coached. She gets herself in shape to play and is aggressive and fearsome on the court and in practice," she said.

Lori is involved in many activities off the court. She plays intramurals here at Behrend all year round to keep her competitive edge. In the summertime, she works as a teachers assistant and supervisor to underprivileged children in a S.T. E. P. program.

Lori's post graduate plans are up in the air right now, but she does know that she wants to be a coach some day at the high school and college level.

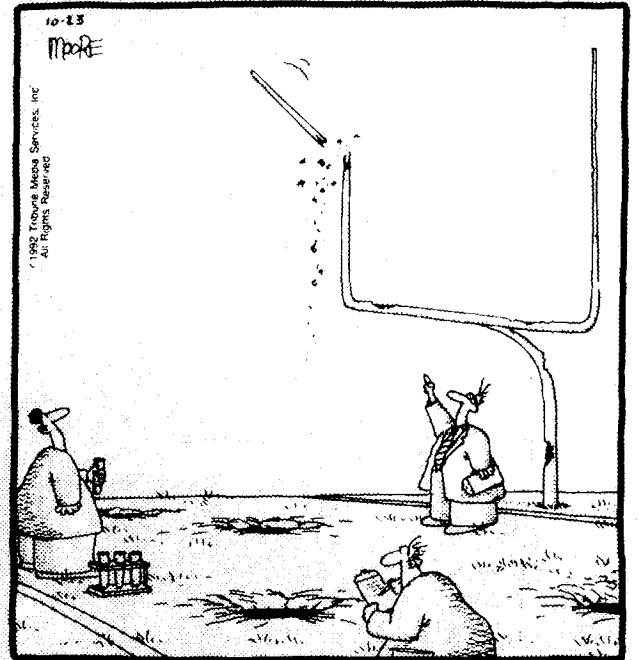

She wants to get a management position in a company, possibly Eric Insurance.
