looking for candid photographs of the campus, students, faculty, events, 'whatever'. "We could also use some writers," said, Zaczkiwicz.

"The yearbook will have articles," said Magestro. "We need people to write those articles, people who know how to write good pieces."

Credits for all persons involved with the yearbook will be properly displayed within the issue.

Orders for the yearbook will be offered beginning November 30th, December 1st & 2nd, outside the the Wintergreen Cafe. Orders can also be placed directly with the yearbook officers, prepayment necessary.

Final yearbook copies will be available by late April.

"For those students graduating in the fall, the issue can be mailed to them when it finally does come out," said Magestro.

The cost of the yearbook is $20 per copy. For those needing the yearbook to be mailed to them, there is the additional cost of mailing.

Police Report

by Jeff Johnson
The Collegian

Disorderly Conduct

On Friday, October 30, police were called to Tiffany Hall. Two students were reported to be creating a disturbance. The students were located and cited for disorderly conduct.

Criminal Trespass

Last Thursday, October 29, it was discovered that several persons were soliciting perfume without a permit in the residence hall areas. The individuals involved were taken to the Police and Safety Office. Upon discovering that no actual perfume sales were made the individuals were escorted off campus and given a warning not to return.

Criminal Mischief

It was reported to the Police and Safety Office that someone had poured a fruit drink into the change machine in Lawrence Hall. This incident is under investigation.

Medical Assist

Police and Safety were called to treat and assist Brookside Fire Department in transporting a student to St. Vincent Medical Center. The student had injured her knee while playing football.
