Bowling for babies

will be displayed inside the Daycare Center when it opens.

Sponsor sheets will be available in the Student Government Office. All bowlers are required to collect at least five dollars worth of sponsorship funds.

The bowl-a-thon is open to any student who attends Penn State-Behrend.

All donations will be due by Thursday, December 3. Collected money should be turned in to Bryan Hiles, treasurer of OAK.

"Come and bowl with us on the 17th. It's for a good cause and we'll have a good time," said Royer.

Direct any questions concerning the bowl-a-thon to any of the OAK officers or the honor society's president.

BE A HERO

Be A Teacher

Teachers have the power to wake up young minds - to make a difference. Reach for that power. Be a teacher. Be a hero.

Police Report

by Jeff Johnson
The Collegian

Medical Assists

On Sunday, November 8th, a student was hurt at Erie Hall while playing Basketball. The student received a blow to the left side of her head. She was transported to Hamot by Brookside.

Also on November 8th, a student called for medical help for a severe cut to his right palm. The student was trying to see if he could break a bottle on his head. He was transported to Hamot by Brookside.

Fire Alarm

A fire alarm was accidentally set off on Friday, November 6. Upon investigation by Police and Safety, the only cause that could be found was that balloons were being blown up in the area. The building was checked, and the alarms reset.

Football Theft

On Thursday, October 29, a student reported to the Police and Safety Office that his football was stolen from the Athletic Fields. The student described the ball to the department, and the incident is being investigated.

Criminal Mischief

A student reported to the Police and Safety Office that someone had "keyed" her vehicle while it was parked on campus. This incident is under investigation.
