

Young go getter takes over JRC

by Gary Johnson
The Collegian

Joint Residence Council has a youngin' at its helm this year. First semester student Hugh Rosenblum has taken charge of JRC.

When asked what JRC really does, he replied, "We deal with residents' problems. If we can't handle it, then we contact someone who can handle it."

Hugh Rosenblum
JRC President

In addition to handling residents' complaints, Rosenblum also handles some of the activities that JRC sponsors or co-sponsors.

"We co-sponsored the Battle of the Bands, we will organize a book sale, movie nights like the Rocky Horror picture show during orientation, Jello Wrestling, and a T-shirt contest. We also organized a committee to come up with new ideas. One idea is a coffee shop in the Student Theater. There we would have espresso, cappucino, and maybe a guitarist or someone reciting poetry."

"We also plan to have a speaker on November 23 at 7:35 p.m. She will talk about the environment and recycling and what we can do."

The JRC's office hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Floor representatives make up JRC and the president is elected at the end of one year to reign for the following year from those on the Council. Rosenblum will serve for the remainder of this year.

Rosenblum also remarked that there was a problem with the election this year, which is why he became president only last week. He gave no further comment.

Free Turkey! Thanksgiving Dinner

Free food? Another Behrend tradition? Yes!

Next Thursday, November 19, is Behrend's 6th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner for 6 Strangers. The dinner will be held in the Wintergreen Cafe at 6 p.m.

"Dinner for Six Strangers is a unique opportunity for students to interact with faculty outside the classroom," said David Shields, director of Student Activities.

The dinner is set up so one faculty member will share a table with six randomly-assigned students. Preferably the students will be "strangers" and this will give them the opportunity to become acquainted.

The meal will be a traditional Thanksgiving dinner with a menu of turkey, mashed potatoes, stuffing, corn, cranberry sauce, tossed salad and pumpkin pie.

"The dinner has become more successful every year," said Pat

Smith, undergraduate intern in the Office of Student Activities. "There were over one hundred students last year, we hope to top that this time."

--David Shields

A reception will be held on the Wintergarden Balcony at 5:30 p.m. with the dinner following.

Thanksgiving Dinner for 6 Strangers is free and is sponsored by the Office of Student Activities/Union. Anyone who has not signed up for the dinner can still do so in the Office of Student Activities until Friday, November 16.

- Pumpkin Pie

Most students only have the opportunity to meet faculty in a formal academic or advisory setting. Thanksgiving Dinner for 6 Strangers offers you an opportunity to meet faculty/staff and other students in a non-academic setting. This will also give faculty and staff an opportunity to get to know students as people with interests beyond the classroom.

You are cordially invited to attend Thanksgiving Dinner for 6 Strangers, a tradition at Penn State-Behrend. The dinner will be on Thursday, November 19, 1992 in the Wintergreen Cafe. Each student will share a dinner table with five randomly-selected fellow students and a faculty/staff member. The dinner is free and sponsored by the Office of Student Activities/Union.

This is Penn State-Behrend's sixth annual Dinner for 6 Strangers and your participation is needed to make it successful. The Office of Student Activities/Union hopes to eliminate the "strangers" on campus and turn them into friends. Please complete and return the form below.
