The Global Assembly Line

Police Report

by Jeff Johnson
Collegian Staff

Theft

On Monday, January 25, the Police and Safety Department reported that two vehicles were broken into while they were parked in "S" Lot. In both vehicles windows had been smashed out. In one of the vehicles $1,400.00 worth of equipment was stolen. Nothing was taken from the other vehicle. These incidents are currently undergoing investigation.

Medical Assist

On Wednesday, January 27, Police and Safety was called to the Plastics Lab when it was reported that a student there had fainted. The student claimed that he was fine, but was still getting over the flu. The student was advised to stop by the Health Center after class.

Accident

On Monday, February 1, it was reported to Police and Safety that an accident had happened at Perry Hall. A vehicle had slid on the ice, and hit a wood post while attempting to park.

Correction Notice:

On the front page of the January 28th issue, Pam Mesta was incorrectly identified. In the caption of Mr. Penn State Erie on page 3, we incorrectly identified the first and second runners-up. The caption should have read "First runner-up Marcus Rodriguez, Second runner-up David Small."

CAN YOU IMAGINE WHAT A DIFFERENCE IT WOULD MAKE IF THE YOUNG PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY SHOWED THE SAME ENTHUSIASM FOR THE VOTING BOOTH?
