the 88 she collected last season.

"I've been concentrating on committing fewer turnovers this season. Over the summer I played basketball with guys, and they have longer arms and are quicker so that helped me take better care of the ball," she said.

Ebinger is a sixth semester English major from New London, Ohio. In high school she was named Co-player of the Year in her conference.

She is a member of the Lion Ambassadors and likes to run in her free time.

"She is a leader off the court as well as on it. She is a very involved and active person," Benim said.

Recycling is easy, isn't it?

In fact, it's one of the easiest ways you personally can make the world a better place.

If you'd like to know more, send a postcard to the Environmental Defense Fund-Recycling, 257 Park Ave. South, NY, NY, 10010.

You will find taking the first step toward recycling can be as easy in practice as it is here on paper.
