

Is it too late to repent, Preacher Stamm?

by Hal D. Coffey
News Editor

Penn State-Behrend was paid an unexpected visit last Wednesday by Westerville, Ohio native Paul Stamm.

Most Behrend students identify him better as the crazy preacher who was denouncing everything while standing next to the Reed Building.

Preacher Stamm was on his way back from Mansfield, PA when he decided to stop at Behrend.

He said he stopped on a college campus because he believes that "students are apathetic towards the deeper things in life."

"College students are more interested in sports, rock 'n roll, and the opposite sex," Stamm said. "At the minimum, I try to provoke people to think."

He claims to be a non-denominational Christian, because his views are unlike any modern sect of Christianity.

"I preach the gospel, warning the wicked to repent. I try to lead by example," Stamm said.

Stamm said his message was not really intended towards Christians.

"Christians don't need to repent for they have already repented because they are Christian."

As Stamm was escorted off campus by Police and Safety, he continued to yell out his trigger phrases, "Turn or burn. Repent or parish."

The All New Homecoming

by Paul Marini
Collegian Staff

This year, homecoming weekend has been renamed Parents and Families/Homecoming Weekend.

David Shields, Director of Student Activities, said the name is not the only change instituted.

"We have revamped the event to make it more of a relaxing weekend," Shields said. "This is usually a time for people to come back and catch up on memories, but we added a chance for families to see students in a less hectic atmosphere."

The festivities begin on Friday, October 1 with a 4 p.m. registration and welcoming reception at the Wintergarden Cafe.

Following that are a number of events: at 6 p.m. there is a family cookout at the Wilson Picnic Grove for $6.55 per person, a 7:30 p.m. pep rally/bonfire at the ski slope, and a Karaoke dance at Bruno's from 9 p.m.-midnight.

Saturday begins with a Fraternity/Sorority breakfast at 9 a.m. At 10 a.m. there are three options; the final Greek Week events, walking tour from Wintergarden, the Alumni soccer match at the soccer field.

There will be two more alumni games - a volleyball game at 10:30 p.m. and a softball game at 2 p.m. (at Erie Hall and the softball field, respectively).

The men's varsity soccer team plays Waynesburg College at 1 p.m. At halftime, the Homecoming King and Queen and Greek Week champions will be announced.

Before the game, the intramural fields will host a tailgate party starting at 11:30 a.m.

Paula Poundstone rounds out the festivities with a concert in Erie Hall at 9:30 p.m.

Tickets are on sale for Reserved, General, and Student Admissions for $17.50, $14.50, and $10 respectively. They can be purchased at the RUB Desk.

Darren Schilberg/Collegian Photographer

In next week's Collegian...

Construction zone ahead: The new Plastics Complex takes shape behind the Nick and Hammermill buildings.

BEAVIS AND BUTTHEAD READ THE COLLEGIAN.

TAKE OFF TO EXCITEMENT!

LOWEST STUDENT AIRFARES TO EUROPE / ASIA

1-800-255-8000

Sample One-Way Airfares

New York-London $199
Los Angeles-Frankfurt $295
Chicago-Paris $249

For your FREE Student Flight Catalog mail this coupon to:
INTERNATIONAL STUDENT EXCHANGE FLIGHTS, INC.
5010 E. Shea Blvd., Suite A - 104
Scottsdale, AZ 85254 USA or Call:
(602) 951-1700

Code Here

Name: _____
Street: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Please call for details

All flights are on regular, scheduled major, well known airlines like

Eastern Airlines, United, TWA, Continental, Northwest, Air France,

British Airways, etc.

These tickets are offered through International Student Exchange flights

ISE Flights one of America's oldest and largest student travel organizations serving students and faculty members

nation-wide since 1951

Education degrees, spending

Country-by-country look at degrees, total public spending on education:

