Openings exist for all business, math/computer science, engineering and engineering technology majors. Any questions, contact Kevin Moore in the Career Development Office.

SGA Report

$13,000 of unallocated funds are available for use by campus organizations. Supplemental budgets are due in the SGA office by 5:00 p.m. October 6th.

In this week's meeting, the freshman elections resulted in a tie for the second seat. The first position was won by Derrice Ward. The tie was between Seth Bruggerman and Christopher Keenen, and was resolved by a coin toss. As a result, the second freshman senator is Seth Bruggerman. Congratulations to both new senators.

The new Eco-Action constitution was approved, and next week Larry Silvis will join us to discuss the campus parking situation. If you have any questions about this subject please join us at 5:30 p.m. next Wednesday in the Reed Seminar Room.

SGA wishes to apologize to Teryl Anderson for accusing her of not performing her job. Please accept our sincerest apologies.

Jason DeMarte
Vice President SGA
