BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE

LITERARY MAGAZINE PLANNED

BOB DOVICHAK, FEELING THAT A CAMPUS THE SIZE OF BEHREND SHOULD BE ABLE TO SPONSOR A LITERARY MAGAZINE, HAS TAKEN MUCH OF THE LEADERSHIP IN PLANNING ONE.

The new Literary Magazine will replace and widen the scope of last year's Icarus, which made barely a token contribution. Dovichak is asking for creative material from Behrend students. He feels that original poetry will be available, but thinks that short stories will be more difficult to obtain. He asks that outlines of short stories be submitted to him by this Friday.

Literary Club enthusiasm has thus far surpassed that of any previous Icarus. Lit. Club members are:

Eileen Bowden, Bob Dovichak, Mary Fetzner, George Homziak, Maggi Kelly, and Carl Rizzo.

Those who have offered to contribute material are: Marge Resta, Karen Sandell, Mary Jane Hiney, Ron Batchelor, George Miller, Jim Michali, Judy Fong, Carol De Arment, Charles Kenney, and Mike Mellech.

The finished product should be about twenty-eight pages in length, and appear during the third week of the winter term. The Breeze is professionally printing it, and hopefully S.G.A. will financially back the project.

"For success it takes the support of the entire student body," says Dovichak, who hopes to receive many student literary
