

thoughtlessness, that student sentiment cannot be aroused too soon to crush such a spirit.

And I dare say, the general sentiment of the students is against such doings. Knowing and believing this there is presented to us a peculiar phrase of reasoning on the part of those in authority—i. e. Two wrongs, will make a right. They say by their action that we the students must put up with the inconvenience of not having our grounds completed until they feel that they have sufficiently punished us for the inadvertant thoughtlessness of two or three of our body. This is not right. The body of students are against any such actions as were indulged in by those fellows, and they stand to do whatever is right in making up for this thoughtlessness.

We copy from the Philadelphia Press the following account of the meeting :

HARRISBURG, Sept. 26. The matter of choosing referees and umpires was treated as the Press advised, viz: the choosing of men from outside and disinterested colleges. A list of referees and umpires of each game will be forwarded as soon as made. The outlook for the season is all that can be wished.

No other business of importance was transacted except that it was decided to allow referees and umpires five dollars and expenses for each game.
