JANUARY, 1896.

WITH the beginning of the present term the attention of our students will be turned to track athletics and baseball. Now is the time for every man who is ambitious to excel in athletics to commence a careful and systematic course of training.

There are a number of persons of athletic ability in our midst. All such should report to Physical Director Hoskins at once. A term's work under our efficient trainer would enable many to win places on the athletic team.

The prospects for a winning baseball team are propitious. A large number of candidates are trying for places, and we urge every person who plays baseball to compete. Everyone stands an equal chance and the team will be made up of the best players.

Last year's team made a very creditable showing, and this year,
