

State Collegian.

Vol. 1, No. 8.

STATE COLLEGE, PA., NOV. 17, 1904.

Price Five Cents.

Calendar.

THURSDAY, NOV. 17.

9.00 P. M. Fraternity dances in their chapter houses.

FRIDAY, NOV. 18.

Pennsylvania Day.

DEDICATION OF THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY
Order of Proceedings.

9.30 to 11.30 A. M. Addresses in the Auditorium by Mr. Thos. L. Montgomery, State Librarian; The Hon. Fred. W. Fleitz, Deputy Attorney General; and His Excellency, Governor Pennypacker. The Rt. Hon. John Morley, M. P., is expected to be present.

12.00 M. to 1.30 P. M. Luncheon in the Armory for the guests of the College.

Dedication Exercises in the Library Building.

2.00 to 3.00 P. M. Addresses by The Hon. Andrew Carnegie, Gen. James A. Beaver, and the President of the College. Presentation of Resolutions.

3.15 to 4.00 P. M. Review of the Cadet Battalion by His Excellency the Governor, and Major-General Charles Miller, Commanding the National Guard of Pennsylvania.

8.00 P. M. Reception in the Armory by the Senior Class, and annual Thanksgiving Assembly.

Note:—All College buildings will be open to visitors from 11.30 A. M. to 2 P. M.

SATURDAY NOV. 19.

3.00 P. M. State vs. Geneva College. Beaver Field.

SUNDAY, NOV. 20.

9.45 A. M. Bible Classes.

11.00 A. M. Chapel. Sermon by Dr. Herrin Y. Roop, President of the Lebanon Valley College.

6.00 P. M. Y. M. C. A. in Room 529 Main. Dr. Roop will talk.

MONDAY, NOV. 21.

7.00 P. M. Forum, 367 Main.

TUESDAY, NOV. 22.

6.30 P. M. C. E. Society, Room 20. Engineering Building.

7.00 P. M. Trial Debate in old Chapel.

7.00 P. M. Mathematical Society, Room 106 Main.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23.

11.10 A. M. Vacation until Sunday.

State 11, Dickinson 0.

For a good account of the game we cannot do better than quote from the Williamsport "Grit" of Sunday last, which comments as follows:—

State won, defeating Dickinson in decisive fashion. State developing unexpected strength, gathered 11 points, while the Red and White eleven failed to score. This, in brief, is the story of Saturday's great football contest on Seminary field. Four thousand five hundred persons saw it. Four hundred of that number came from Carlisle and environs, and 800 more were riotously happy backers of the Blue and White.

The teams came together heralded as almost evenly matched, with the odds slightly favoring Dickinson. And so they appeared during the skirmish, which lasted during the entire first half. It was nip and tuck, and the frenzied rooters were not so sure but last season's game, which went without result until the last two minutes of play, was to be repeated. State was without the services of its big captain and fullback, Forkum, and after 10 minutes of play Moscrip, the best tackle on the team, was led from the field with a broken collar bone. But to the surprise of all the Blue and White kept Dickinson on the defensive most of the time and at one time worked the ball to the Red and White eleven's 6 yard line, where a try for a field goal by McIlveen resulted in a failure. McIlveen made another try for a goal in this half that was remarkable even though it was unsuccessful. The big halfback stood on the 50 yard line in his attempt and to the amazement of all the ball missed going over the goal bar by less than 10 feet. Late in the first half State gave a glimpse of superior strength in a couple of reverses it administered to the Dickinson eleven, but which it had no time to follow up before the whistle sounded.

SECOND HALF OF THE GAME

The second half was the game. In the intermission State's coaches held a council of war and when the second period of play began it was with the skirmishing out of the way and with State fighting on the knowledge of the enemy's tactics learned in the first half. Both of State's touchdowns were made by McGee, the sub fullback, who owed his presence on the team to the illness of Captain Forkum. McGee's work, along with that of McIlveen and Yeckley, the other members of State's backfield, was spectacular. The half was not long on the way before Dickinson's defense wavered, and after vicious attacks by Yeckley, McIlveen, and McGee, the Dickinson forwards were invariably spilled all over the field. There was no stopping State, once its backfield was on its stride. That tangible quality called spirit gripped the Blue and White once it found power to advance the ball, and the transformation from a poor second in the betting odds to the favorite was made in a twinkling.

After the kickoff in the second half play was resumed on Dickinson's 16 yard line. The State defense was a wall of stone, and Davis was forced to punt, the ball going to McIlveen in midfield. A swift run and good dodging brought the sphere back to Dickinson's 28 yard

Athletic news continued on Third page