

LOCAL.

Next week—"My kingdom for a horse."

Mr. P. O. Ray was confined to his room by illness a few days last week.

G. W. Selby, Mining, '08, has left College, but will re-enter next September.

J. B. Wyckoff '08 returned to College last Friday after a month's absence due to sickness.

J. A. Kleback '08 was called to his home at Taylor, Pa., on account of the death of his sister.

Prof. F. L. Pattee will have charge of the Dartmouth courses in English during the summer.

Juniors and Sophomores may obtain first semester briefs at the library on and after Thursday, Jan. 19.

H. R. Gordon and Henry Morgan both ex-'09 are attending school at Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa.

Schedules will be on sale at the Book Room next week. Come early and avoid the rush. Price only five cents.

There will be an interval between the semesters from Saturday until Monday inclusive. Here's hoping there'll be no conditions to our enjoyment.

—Your class pictures, athletic groups etc., are preserved and appear better when framed. Ray Farrington will take your order for The Mallory Studio.

Prof. Surface attended the annual State Meeting of the Farmer's Alliance at Williamsport last Tuesday and delivered an address on Agricultural Education and the Advancement of the Farmer.

"Billy" Yoder '05, ran off to Reading during the Christmas holidays with one of Harrisburg's handsome maidens and was married on the sly. This is a great secret Don't tell any one.

A. S. McAllister, '98, has resigned his professorship in Sibley College, Cornell University, to become associate editor of the Electrical World, New York, to which periodical he has been a frequent contributor.

Dr. Benj. F. Gill has returned from his trip to Delaware College, Newark, Delaware, where he delivered an address on "The Brotherhood of Culture" at the institution of a new chapter of Phi Kappa Phi in that college.

Margaret, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. Pingree, who died last week, will be buried at the home of her parents in Amherst, Mass. The funeral exercises took place in State College Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Pingree is Assistant Chemist at the Experiment Station and his many friends sympathize with he and Mrs. Pingree in their bereavement.

The young ladies of the College gave a sleighing party to Bellefonte on Friday Jan., 13th. Misses Thompson, Glenn, Harrison, Cooke and Hinkle; Messrs. Geib, Curry, Aungst, Leitzell, and Arnold, with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Linville as chaperones, made up the merry company. After an enjoyable repast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hickman in Bellefonte, the party returned to the College at a seasonable hour.

Basket Ball.

On Friday evening, Jan. 13 in the Armory, the second team defeated the Williamsport High School by the score of 33 to 13. The feature of the game was Moorhead's all around work. The teams lined-up as follows:

COLLEGE	WILLIAMSPORT
Stewart, Grimm . . . forward . . . . .	Hartman
Quigley, Haverstick. forward . . . . .	Waltz, Lallada
Burns, Zink . . . . . center . . . . .	Braddock
Caswell . . . . . guard . . . . .	Riley
Moorhead, Slocum . . . . . guard . . . . .	Miller
Goals Ougley 1, Burns 2, Caswell 1, Moorhead 7, Zink 1, Slocum 1, Haverstick 2, Waltz 1, Braddock 1, Miller 2, Lallada A. Fouls College 7, Williamsport 4. Goals from fouls. Moorhead 3 Miller 3. Referee Kilmer.

Alumni Notes.

R. R. Baillie '03, who is with the General Electric Company, has been called to his home temporarily by the illness of his father.

Kunkle, a prominent member of the University of Pennsylvania basketball squad, was formerly a student at this institution. He entered with 1904.

Harry L. Jones, '02, is assistant manager of the Rockland Light and Power Company at Niagara, N. Y. This company is using a Parsons Steam Turbine with success.

It is reported that Ed Saums, of last year's graduating class, has left his position with the American Bridge Company and is now with the Susquehanna Coal Company at Wilkes-Barre.

The last annual report of the chief signal officers of the U. S. Army refer in a very complimentary manner to the work of P. A. Klock, '96, who is the Electrical Engineer of the U. S. Signal Corps.

Enrollment at the Big Colleges.

The following table shows the enrollment to date at our leading universities: Harvard, 6,013; Columbia, 4,557; Chicago, 4,146; Northwestern, 4,007; Michigan, 3,826; California, 3,990; Illinois, 3,661; Minnesota, 3,550; Cornell, 3,438; Wisconsin, 3,221; Yale, 2,990; Pennsylvania, 2,664; Syracuse, 2,207; Leland Stanford, Jr., 1,370; Princeton, 1,383.

The world is old, yet likes to laugh;

New jokes are hard to find;

A whole new editorial staff

Can't tickle every time.

So if you meet some ancient joke

Decked out in modern guise,

Don't frown and call the thing a fake,

Just laugh; don't be too wise.—Tiger.

There was a crowd, for there were three,

The girl, the parlor lamp and he;

Two is company, and no doubt

That is the reason the lamp went out.—Ex.