Triangle O'Cedar Mop Demonstration

This is the best time of the year to get acquainted with the O'Cedar mop, for this is the time of year when every housewife is beginning to think of housecleaning.

You will conserve just fifty per cent. of your strength if you will only let the O'Cedar mop help you clean house.

A demonstration of the new triangle O'Cedar mop is now being given in the basement. There are padded edges on the new triangle to prevent the marring of furniture. Try a triangle O'Cedar mop soon and you'll regret you hadn't used one before!

Prices are low enough, 75c and $1.25.

LOCAL POLITICAL NOTES

Republican Mass Meetings Held at Rockville and Dauphin Last Night

Largely-attended Republican mass meetings were held at Rockville and Dauphin last night, at which Senator E. E. Beidleman was the principal speaker, his address being along the lines of the Republican platform.

This evening the Republicans of Gratz and Loyaltown will hold mass meetings, to be addressed by local candidates.

The picture of Dean Lewis, who retired as the Washington party candidate for Governor in favor of Vance C. McCormick, has been taken off the Bull Moose banner at Third and Market streets and that of Mr. McCormick substituted.

The Palmer-McCormick Club of the Tenth ward is making arrangements to hold a final campaign rally in Kelker street hall on October 24. The club will meet on Thursday night at Rodgers' hall.

John A. Marshall, Jesse J. Lybarger and Lewis N. Neiffer were the speakers at the meeting of the Second Ward Palmer-McCormick Club at Thirteenth and Derry streets last night.

The Seventh Ward Palmer-McCormick Club will meet to-night at 626 Dauphin street to hear addresses from several speakers.

The Harrisburg Democratic League will meet at 402 Filbert street on Friday night.

Washington party meetings were held last night at Steelton, Enhart and Oberlin, at which Dr. John H. Kneider, candidate for Congress, was the principal speaker.

C. V. NEWS

HARRISBURGER TO LEAD BAND

Harry Loeser Selected by Members of Gettysburg Musical Organization
Gettysburg, Oct. 14.—Professor Harry Loeser, of Harrisburg, has been engaged to take the place of Mr. McDonald, of Carlisle, instructor of the Gettysburg band. The new instructor is not unknown to musicians of the town. On a number of occasions he came here to college affairs as leader of the famous Loeser's orchestra.

The local band has been in charge of Mr. McDonald since last winter. He has entered into a contract for a period of five years to direct the musical numbers of home talent plays.

Arrest Spoils Honey-moon

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 14.—George Wasson, of Hedgesville, W. Va., one month a widower, was arrested at the Hotel Franklin here yesterday and held for Court by Justice Ankeney to answer a charge of perjury, it being alleged that he swore that Miss Ruth Miller, aged 15, with whom he eloped to Hagerstown yesterday, was 21 when he obtained a marriage license. The couple were married at the Baptist parsonage by the Rev. Eugene K. Thomas. The bride's parents pursued, but did not locate the elopers until yesterday.

Hospital Needs Money

Carlisle, Oct. 14.—With the total cash subscriptions of donation day totaling only $72.31 as against $270.85 given on donation day last year, the Board of Managers of Todd Hospital are urgently in need of money to care for the patients during the coming year, according to the statement, just announced.

Dies as Scaffold Breaks

Frederick, Md., Oct. 14.—William Baltzell, of Thurmont, was killed, Charles Stover, of New Midway, was seriously injured, and another man was slightly hurt when scaffold supports gave way in a silo being erected on the farm of Upton Mehling, a short distance from this place, yesterday afternoon. The men, working on a cement silo about completed, were hurled from the roof to the base of the structure through 40 feet of scaffolding, which gave way when supporting chains sprang.

Baltzell was killed instantly, his skull being fractured at the base. Stover was cut and bruised about the head. He was unconscious for half an hour and his condition is serious.

Much Timber Burned

Carlisle, Oct. 14.—Igniting, it is believed, from sparks from a passing engine, fire Monday afternoon broke out in the mountains near Mount Holly and burned over some hundreds of acres of valuable timber before it finally subdued about 9 o'clock Monday night when the changing wind drove the blaze back on its previous path. The timber land burned was on the mountain on the east side of the gap immediately opposite Mount Holly Park.

Indian Missionary to Speak

An interesting talk will be given to-night at 7.30 o'clock in the lecture room of the Market Square Presbyterian church by Sam. Higginbotham, of Allahabad, India. It is said that he is the most interesting speaker now visiting this country. Mr. Higginbotham has charge of the agricultural department of the Christian College and is superintendent of the leper asylum at Allahabad, India.

U. B. Church Reopening

After having been closed for several weeks undergoing extensive repairs, Young's church of the United Brethren in Christ, located one mile west of Wertsville and two miles north of Hagerstown, on the State road, will be reopened for worship Sunday, October 18, with services at 10 and 7 o'clock. The Rev. W. H. Washington, D. D., presiding elder, will preach both morning and evening.

Steelton Man Gets Marriage License

Lebanon, Oct. 14.—Deputy Clerk of the Orphans' Court John Boyer yesterday issued a marriage license to William E. Acker, coke oven operator, of Steelton, Dauphin county, and Miss Elizabeth M. Gross, of Bismarck, Lebanon county.

IT PAYS TO USE STAR-INDEPENDENT WANT ADS.

HOTEL LICENSE REVOKED

Judge Seibert Makes Ruling Against Railroad Hotel

New Bloomfield, Oct. 14.—Judge Seibert, of Perry county, yesterday filed an opinion revoking the license of the Railroad hotel at Marysville.

Stephen Boyd, the proprietor, was charged with selling liquor to minors and to inebriate men. A hearing on the rule to show why the license should not be revoked was granted last Friday.

When the liquor cases came up last spring this hotel was granted a license. Since then these charges have been brought against the hotel.

Foundation for Church Begun

Marietta, Oct. 14.—The congregation of the Furnace chapel at the eastern end of town has begun the foundation for their new church, on account of the rapidly growing congregation. George Mabel, who founded this chapel in 1888, and has been the superintendent ever since, is taking an active interest in the work. It was started under Presbyterian doctrine.
